Yahweh’s Last Days’ Anointed Witness, Yisrayl Hawkins, developed a love and passion for the Sacred Scriptures at an early age, which led him on his life-long path of studying and teaching the Laws and prophecies found within those Scriptures.

As a dedicated teacher and long-time promoter of world peace, he witnessed to dozens of leaders in the United States and abroad concerning the direction the world was heading and the imminent dangers ahead.

He was an accomplished author, having written over 50 books and booklets relating to the Scriptures and world events, along with a monthly magazine, The Prophetic Word, and The House of Yahweh Newsletter. He also gave sermons and taped a program called The Prophetic Word Program, weekly.

Yisrayl Hawkins, the beloved Pastor and Overseer of The House of Yahweh, completed His work here on earth on Mosheh 01, 2021 (10/08/2021) and is presently sleeping, awaiting the resurrection shown in Revelation 20. His work of serving The House of Yahweh congregations and community, the world at large, and the work that He lived for—bringing True Peace, Joy, and Abundant Living to all of mankind—is continuing throughout the world by his seed, the sons and daughters of the House of Yahweh as prophesied in Revelation 11:8-9.

All of his publications and broadcasts are available through The House of Yahweh.

Search out The Book of Yahweh, and read. Not one of these will be neglected.

For it is written: Yahweh is their shepherd; for His mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.

The Book of Yahweh is the complete writings of the inspired Prophets of Yahweh and the Apostles of Yahshua Messiah, all in one Book. However, many are unfamiliar with The Book of Yahweh because it was taken to Rome during the removal of The House of Yahweh (Temple) in Jerusalem, and hidden in Rome for over 1,500 years. Later, the Catholic Church was forced to let a rendition (King James version) of it out to the public but only with the true Names of the Creator, Yahweh and the Savior, Yahshua replaced with the titles Lord and God.

Many hours of research went into restoring The Book of Yahweh, which was made available in 1987 by The House of Yahweh in Abilene, Texas. For more information about the history behind the conspiracy of the Catholic Church to take away the pure word of Yahweh, call, write or email The House of Yahweh.

Surely We Can See Wars Coming

Yahweh's prophecies are 100% True. Every plague is shown in so many details. Why is the whole world pushing forward actions that will bring the nuclear burning of the whole earth and the murder of four-fifths of the earth's population?

BIBLE PROPHECIES SHOW THE ANSWERS

It's not surprising that the Savior, Yahshua Messiah, said only fools would be slow to believe all that the Prophets of Yahweh have spoken. Follow the Scriptures in your bible and you will see what I mean. Yahweh's Prophet Daniyl actually spoke of this present generation of nuclear knowledge. When you couple his words with Yahshua Messiah's Words, you see, without a doubt, that we are in the last part of the Last Generation given to mankind by the Creator Yahweh to prove that the activities of rebellion, chosen by mankind, against Yahweh's Laws of health, joy, and peace, will lead to nuclear burning.

YES! NUCLEAR BURNING

Yahweh's Prophet Isayah showed the end and the cause. Daniyl shows the how and the time period. The Savior, Yahshua Messiah, showed the generation, hatred, deception, mankind's health condition of confused minds, and the world's condition of mourning and fading away, plus the nuclear possibilities. These combined prophecies altogether show that the coming months will not be pleasant, and few people will live through what is rapidly coming.

YAHWEH'S PROPHECIES

Yahweh gave the scenario of following His way versus following the way of evil that mankind has chosen for 6,000 years. Notice:

GENESIS 3:1-5

- 1 Now the serpent was more subtle and crafty than any beast of the field which Yahweh had made. And she said to the woman; Has Yahweh indeed said: You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?
- 2 And the woman said to the serpent; We can eat the fruit of the trees of the garden;
- 3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Yahweh has said: You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, or you will die.
- 4 And the serpent said to the woman; You will not surely die.
- 5 For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing righteousness and evil.

Did you catch what was said here...evil like the Gods? Now, Cain, the son of Eve and Adam is an example of being evil like the Gods.

GENESIS 4:6-8, 11, 14

- 6 So Yahweh said to Cain: Why are you angry? Why are you downcast?
- 7 If you do righteousness, will you not be acceptable? And if you do not do righteousness, sin is crouching at your door. The desire to sin is with you, but you must overcome it!
- 8 Now Cain talked with Abel his brother; and it came to pass, when they were spread abroad, that Cain rose against Abel his brother and killed him.
- 11 So now, you are cursed from the earth which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.
- 14 Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall not be seen by Your Face. I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, for there shall be continual war, vengeance, and retaliation.

Notice in verse 6, angry. Compare:

REVELATION 11:18

And the nations were angry...

MATTITHYAH 24:7

For nation will rise against nation...

GENESIS 4:14

...for there shall be continual war, vengeance, and retaliation.

In Genesis 4:7, Yahweh said, “If you do righteousness...” Couple that with:

command you this day, to the right hand nor to the left; by going after any God (el) to serve it.

DEUTERONOMY 6:25

And it will be our righteousness if we observe to do all of these Laws before Yahweh our Father, as He has commanded us.

I YAHCHANAN 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

DEUTERONOMY 28:1-14

1 And it will be, if you will listen diligently to the Voice of Yahweh your Father, by observing and doing all His Laws which I command you this day, that Yahweh your Father will set you high above all the nations on earth as His kings and priests.

2 And all these blessings will come upon you, and accompany you, because you obey Yahweh your Father:

3 Blessed will you be in the city, and blessed will you be in the country.

4 Blessed will be the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground, and the young of your livestock: the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

5 Blessed will be your basket and your storehouse.

6 Blessed will you be when you come in, and blessed will you be when you go out.

7 Yahweh will cause your enemies, who rise up against you, to be defeated in front of you; they will come out against you from one direction, but flee from you in seven directions.

8 Yahweh will send a blessing on your barns and storehouses, and in everything you set your hand to do. Yahweh will bless you in the land which Yahweh your Father is giving you.

9 Yahweh will establish you as His holy people unto Himself, as He promised you on oath, if you will keep the Laws of Yahweh your Father, and walk in all His ways.

10 Then all the people on the earth will see that you are called by the Name of Yahweh, and they will reverence you.

11 Yahweh will grant you plenteous possessions—in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground—in the land Yahweh vowed on oath to your forefathers to give you.

12 Yahweh will open the heavens, the storehouse of His bountiful treasure, to send rain upon your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations, but you will borrow from none.

13 Yahweh will make you the head, and not the tail. You will be at the top only, and never be at the bottom, if you will pay attention to the Laws of Yahweh your Father, which I command you this day, and are then careful to observe and do them.

14 For if you diligently observe and do all of Yahweh's Law, then you will not turn aside from any of the Laws which I

These blessings are received by practicing the righteousness of Yahweh. But notice what is said in verse 14, going after any God to serve. Remember, evil like the Gods. Genesis 3:5 says you will be as Gods, knowing evil. Following, practicing, or knowing evil brings curses...the curses we see in abundance in this present generation.

In the very beginning, Yahweh prophesied to Cain that there would be continual war by not practicing righteousness.

GENESIS 4:14

...for there shall be continual war, vengeance, and retaliation.

Afterwards, one of Yahshua's Disciples, Yahdah (Jude in the KJV), around 66 A.Y. (After Yahshua) said:

YAHDAH 1:11

Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily in the error of Balaam for reward, and have perished in the rebellion of Korah!

THE WAY OF CAIN?

The way of Cain is seen in Genesis 4:7; not practicing righteousness but instead practicing sin. Genesis 4:7 shows that sin and the desire to sin can be overcome by practicing righteousness and not letting religions of Satan deceive you.

I YAHCHANAN 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

To that, Yahshua added a prophecy that was given to Him by Yahweh to show us, today, that Satan deceives the whole world.

REVELATION 12:9

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. She was cast out into the earth, and her angels were cast out with her.

It is possible to let no man deceive you by strictly following the Inspired Writings of Yahweh's Prophets, Apostles, and the Savior, Yahshua Messiah, who were all in unity with Yahweh. Notice Yahshua's Words.

LUKE 24:25

Then He said to them: O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the Prophets have spoken!

Yahweh's Prophets, Apostles, and Yahshua all said, to receive life, practice Yahweh's Laws. But evil God worshippers like Satan say, No! Sin is the desirable thing. Why are all nations and their religions practicing sin today? They choose to be deceived instead of choosing to practice Yahweh's righteousness. As a result, there are forty-one wars at this time. Nuclear war will soon come, for the same reason.

PROPHECY OF THE END

The Savior, Yahshua Messiah, gave many details for us in this Last Generation that coincides with prophecies given by Yahweh's Prophet Daniyl. Both Daniyl and Yahshua saw things alike, yet, they lived over 500 years apart. Daniyl spoke of a time when there would be the greatest time of trouble ever and, at that time, there would be deliverance. Notice carefully:

DANIYL 12:1-10

1 And at that time, one who is like Yahweh will stand up at Abel; Yisrayl, the Great Priest, who stands at Abel to teach Yahweh's Just, Perfect Laws to the children of Your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation to that same time. And at that time, Your people will be delivered, everyone who will be found written in The Book of Life.

2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake; some to Everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And those who are wise will shine as the brightness of the heavens; and those who turn many to righteousness, as the stars forever and ever

4 But you, O Daniyl, shut up the words, and seal the book to the time of The End; many will run to and fro, and knowledge will be increased.

5 Then I, Daniyl, looked; and behold, there stood two others, one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And said to the man clothed in linen, who on that future day is teaching: How long will it be to the end of these wonders?

7 Then I heard the man clothed in linen, who on that future day is teaching, when he held up his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and vowed by Him Who lives forever, that: It will be for a time, times, and a half, when Yahweh will have accomplished pouring out His Power through His holy people, all these things will be finished.

8 So I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said; O my ruler, what will be the end of these things?

9 But he said: Go your way, Daniyl, for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of The End.

10 Many will be purified, and made white, and tried; tested; but the wicked will do wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.

Verse 1...there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation to that same time.

Compare with Yahshua's Words.

MATTITHYAH 24:21-22

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

From this we see that Daniyl and Yahshua were prophesying about the same time of trouble. Yahshua Messiah goes on to show this to take place in the Last Generation, in which the evil of the Gods prevails. Remember, the whole world will be evil like the Gods.

GENESIS 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing righteousness and evil.

Couple that with:

DEUTERONOMY 30:15-19

15 See, I have set before you this day life by righteousness, and death by destruction—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you can live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father can bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

19 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Therefore choose life, so both you and your children can live.

Take a close look at verse 17...submit to Gods; become like the Gods, knowing and practicing evil. Also verse 18, I declare to you this day that you will surely perish.

I CORINTHIANS 6:9

Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of Yahweh? Do not deceive yourselves. Neither fornicators, nor God worshippers (worshippers of elohim), nor adulterers, nor men who commit sexual perversions with boys, nor men who commit sexual perversions with other men.

The unrighteous? Notice in the same verse, God worshippers. Remember Genesis 3:5, evil like the Gods. By the Apostle Shaul's writings, we know that the Gods practice all of the evils that the Apostle mentioned in I Corinthians 6:9. No doubt, the religions today are following the Gods instead of Yahweh, the Creator. Revelation 12:9 shows that Satan deceives the whole world to be like the Gods, like Cain, knowing and practicing evil like the Gods.

I CORINTHIANS 6:9

Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of Yahweh? Do not deceive yourselves. Neither fornicators, nor God worshippers (worshippers of elohim), nor adulterers, nor men who commit sexual perversions with boys, nor men who commit sexual perversions with other men.

Remember, you will perish if you are evil like the Gods.

DEUTERONOMY 30:17-18

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

Yahshua's Words were:

LUKE 13:5

...unless you repent, you will all likewise perish!

ACTS 3:19

Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins will be blotted out; that times of refreshing will come from the Presence of Yahweh.

I Corinthians 6:9...the unrighteous?

ANSWER...

I YAHCHANAN 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

THE UNRIGHTEOUS, THOSE EVIL LIKE THE GODS, WILL PERISH

Let's go back to Yahweh's Prophet Daniyl. In Daniyl

12:1, he refers to the greatest time of trouble ever.

MATTITHYAH 24:21-22

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

The time when knowledge would be increased.

DANIYL 12:4

But you, O Daniyl, shut up the words, and seal the book to the time of The End; many will run to and fro, and knowledge will be increased.

The time of nuclear burning.

MATTITHYAH 24:29

Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Compare: all the wicked will burn themselves up in this nuclear burning.

MALAKYAH 4:1

For, behold, the day comes that will burn like an oven; and all the proud, yes, and all who do wickedly, will be stubble—the day that comes will burn them up, says Father Yahweh; and it will leave them neither root nor branch.

You just read how the evil of the Gods will end. Remember, continual wars.

GENESIS 4:14

...for there shall be continual war, vengeance, and retaliation.

DEUTERONOMY 28:15-24

15 However, if you do not obey Yahweh your Father, and do not carefully follow all His Laws and His statutes, which I command you this day, then all these curses will come upon you, and accompany you:

16 Cursed will you be in the city, and cursed will you be in the country.

17 Cursed will be your basket and your storehouse.

18 Cursed will be the fruit of your body, the produce of your land, the calves of your herds, and the lambs of your flocks.

19 Cursed will you be when you come in, and cursed will you be when you go out.

20 Because of the wickedness you have done in forsaking Me, it will come to pass that you will have given yourselves over to curses, confusion, and rebuke, in everything you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin.

21 It will come to pass that you will cause the plagues to cling to you, until you are destroyed from the land you are entering to possess.

22 It will come to pass that you will cause yourselves to be struck with consumption, with a fever, with an inflammation, with scorching heat, with the sword, with blasting, and with mildew; they will stay with you, until you perish.

23 And the heaven that is over your heads shall be brass, and the earth under you shall be iron.
24 It will come to pass that you will cause the rain of your land to become powder and dust: from heaven it shall come down upon you, until you are destroyed.

All nations are suffering these plagues in this generation. The word sword in verse 22 shows wars. Remember, there would be continual wars. But in this Last Generation, we see wars with blasting. Remember, this blasting from bombs, specifically the nuclear bomb, were not invented until this present generation, of which the Savior said:

MATTITHYAH 24:29, 32-34

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.
34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

The following article, an essay from Discover magazine, February 1984, deals directly with the consequences of Nuclear War.

Dr. Thomas was one of the four American scientists who, at the invitation of Senators Edward Kennedy and Mark Hatfield, met in Washington in December for a three-hour open discussion with four Soviet counterparts. The subject of their discussion: the nuclear winter (DISCOVER, January).

Two scientific reports have recently been published, dealing with the probable effects of nuclear war upon the earth's climate and the life of the planet. The first discovery is already widely known within the scientific community of climatologists, geophysicists, and biologists here and abroad, and has been confirmed in detail by scientists in the Soviet Union. Computer models demonstrate that a nuclear war involving the exchange of less than one third of the total American and Soviet arsenal will change the climate of the entire Northern Hemisphere, shifting it abruptly from its present seasonal state to a long, sunless, frozen night. This will be followed after some months by a settling of nuclear soot and dust, then by a new malignant kind of sunlight, with all of its ultraviolet band, capable of blinding most terrestrial animals, no longer shielded from the earth by the ozoneosphere. In the same research, new calculations of the extent and intensity of radioactive fallout predict the exposure of large land areas to much more intense levels of radiation than expected. The report is referred to as TTAPS, an acronym derived from the investigators' names: Turco, Toon, Ackerman, Pollack, and Sagan.

The second piece of work, by Paul Ehrlich and 19 other distinguished biologists, demonstrates that the predictions of TTAPS mean nothing less than the extinction of much of the earth's biosphere, very possibly involving the Southern Hemisphere as well as the Northern.

Taken together, the two papers change everything in the world about the prospect of thermonuclear warfare. They have already received a careful and critical review by scientists representing the disciplines concerned, here and abroad, and there already appears to be an unprecedented degree of concurrence with the technical details as well as the conclusions drawn. In the view of some referees, the TTAPS report may even be understating the climatological damage implied by its data. The 20 biologists' paper, summarized by Professor Ehrlich, represents the consensus arrived at by 40 biological scientists at a meeting in Woods Hole, Massachusetts, last spring.

It is a new world, demanding a new kind of diplomacy and a new logic.

Up to now, the international community of statesmen, diplomats, and military analysts has tended to regard the prospect of nuclear war as a problem only for the adversaries in possession of the weapons. Arms control and the endless negotiations aimed at the reduction of nuclear explosives have been viewed as the responsibility, even the prerogative, of those few nations in actual confrontation. Now all that is changed. There is no nation on earth free of the jeopardy of destruction if any two countries, or groups of countries, embark upon a nuclear exchange. If the Soviet Union and the United States, and their respective allies in the Warsaw Pact and NATO, begin to launch their missiles beyond a still undetermined and ambiguous minimum, neutral states like Sweden and Switzerland are in for the same long-term effects, the same slow death, as the actual participants. Australia and New Zealand, Brazil and South Africa, could have as much to worry about as West Germany if a full-scale exchange were to take place far to the north.

Up to now, we have all tended to regard any conflict with nuclear arms as an effort by paired adversaries to settle such issues as territorial dominance or ideological dispute. Now, with the new findings before us, it is clear that any territory gained will be, at the end, a barren wasteland, and any ideology will vanish in the death of civilization and the permanent loss of mankind's memory of culture.

The risks of this kind of war have conventionally been calculated by the numbers of dead human beings on either side at the end of the battle, armies and noncombatants together. The terms "acceptable" and "unacceptable," signifying so-and-so many million human casualties, have been used for making cool judgments about the need for new and more accurate weapon systems. From now on, things are different. Leave aside the already taken for granted estimate that in an all-out exchange of, say, 5,000 megatons, something like a billion people would be killed outright by blast, heat, and radiation. Set aside as well the likely fact that more than another billion would die later on, from the delayed effects of the climate and radioactive fallout.

IN THIS GENERATION

In Mattithyah 24:33, Yahshua said "when you see these things". Think of this. Wow! What a wonderful prophecy. In this time period, Daniyl said that knowledge would be increased. It was in the beginning of this generation when the computer was invented, and the nuclear bomb that will darken the sun came from this increase of knowledge. All of this took place in this present, prophesied generation. Yahshua said, “when you see these things”. We can see all of these things at this time, in this generation.

THE TIME OF A PROPHESED WORK OF WARNING

This generation shown in Mattithyah 24:34 is referred to as the Last Days. The Last Days is the Last Generation when the evil of God worship, which is the cause of all that the world has suffered for 6,000 years, and the wicked who will not repent for practicing and teaching it will perish.

GENESIS 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing righteousness and evil.

DEUTERONOMY 30:15-18

15 See, I have set before you this day life by righteousness, and death by destruction—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you can live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father can bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

YECHETZQYAH (EZEKIEL) 18:4, 20-28

4 Behold, all souls are Mine. Just as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is Mine; the soul that sins, it will die.

20 The soul that sins, it will die. The son will not bear the iniquity of the father, nor will the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself.

21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all My Statutes, and do that which is Lawful and right, then he will surely live; he will not die.

22 And his transgressions that he has committed will not be mentioned against him; in his righteousness that he has done, he will live.

23 Do I have any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? says Father Yahweh: No, but rather that he would turn back from his wicked ways, and live.

24 But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does—should he live? All his righteousness that he has done will not be mentioned in his behalf. In his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he will die.

25 Yet you say; The Way of Yahweh is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israyl: Is not My Way equal? Are not your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity and dies, it is because of the iniquity he has done, that he will die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is Lawful and right, he will save himself, and live.

28 Because he considered, and turned away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he will surely live; he will not die.

LUKE 13:3

I tell you, No! But unless you repent you will all likewise perish!

REVELATION 20:11-15

11 And I saw a Great White Throne, and Him Who sat on it, from Whose Face the powers of the earth and the powers of the heavens, including the Gods (elohim), were driven away; for the verdict was reached that there is no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before Yahweh. And the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is The Book of Life. And the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and sheol; the grave, delivered up the dead which were in them. And they were judged, every man, according to his works.

14 And death and sheol were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whoever was not found written in The Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

MALAKYAH 4:1

For, behold, the day comes that will burn like an oven; and all the proud, yes, and all who do wickedly, will be stubble—the day that comes will burn them up, says Father Yahweh; and it will leave them neither root nor branch.

This is not a punishment from Yahweh. It's a warning showing what the religious practices are bringing. The religions are leading the nations to destruction. Yahweh is warning them, and you, to repent and be converted. Yahweh also shows that the God worshippers who are bringing this evil curse of nuclear war will not repent of their evil.

NOTICE THE WARNING

ACTS 3:19

Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins will be blotted out; that times of refreshing will come from the Presence of Yahweh.

I YAHCHANAN 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

REVELATION 22:12-14

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they will have right to the Tree of Life, and will enter in through the gates into the City.

You have no right to the Tree of Life unless you repent and convert to practicing Yahweh's Laws of righteousness, peace, joy, love, health and eternal life. At the time of this great perishing, protection will actually be given to those who repent, convert, and learn to reverence the Name of Yahweh and practice the Laws of Yahweh. Notice:

MALAKYAH 4:1-4

1 For, behold, the day comes that will burn like an oven; and all the proud, yes, and all who do wickedly, will be stubble—the day that comes will burn them up, says Father Yahweh; and it will leave them neither root nor branch.

2 But for you who reverence My Name, the Light of righteousness will arise with healing in its wings; and you will go out, leaping like calves released from the stall.

3 And the wicked will be trodden down; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that this will be done, says Yahweh our Father.

4 Remember the Laws of Mosheh My Servant, which I commanded through him in Horeb for all Israyl, with the Statutes and Judgments.

Verse 1 shows us that the fire with which they destroy themselves leaves them neither root nor branch. There will be no resurrection for them. Verse 2 shows that those who reverence the Name of Yahweh, the Creator, will have extreme joy. They will be given great Authority to rule as Yahweh rules.

GENESIS 1:26

Then Yahweh said: I will make man in My Image, according to My Likeness; they will have Authority over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

PSALM 8:4-5, 9

4 What is man that You are mindful of him? And the son of man, that You visit him?

5 For You have made him a little lower than the malakim, but You will crown him with glory and honor.

9 How excellent is Your Great Name in all the earth, Yahweh, our Father!

ROMANS 8:19

For the earnest expectation of the creation waits for the revealing of the sons of Yahweh.

These sons of Yahweh will bring peace to the universe and assure...sin never again and war no more. Read on.

THE BEGINNING OF THEIR RULE

The system that leads the earth in the evil of the Gods today is referred to as the fourth beast, which proves to be the fourth world-ruling kingdom known as the 'holy' Roman empire. The word holy here does not mean righteous, righteousness is practicing Yahweh's Laws, which they do not do. It's a pretense of this religion of sodomites.

I YAHCHANAN 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

This Roman empire, led by the Catholic Church, sent Titus, the general of their Roman army, to destroy the temple that was originally called The House of Yahweh. Titus moved all of the temple artifacts to Rome. Even the stones of the temple were removed and the hill, referred to as Mt. Zion, was plowed like a field. From the vatican on the seven hills of Rome, the fourth beast still leads the world under the name catholic, meaning universal, which means they worship all Gods. But this woman (Catholic Church) that sits upon the beast is prophesied to be burned in the great nuclear burning that is soon to take place in this last part of this present, prophesied generation.

SHE'S CALLED THE GREAT WHORE

REVELATION 17:1-7, 9, 18

1 And there came one of the seven malakim who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me: Come, I will show you the sentence of the great whore that sits upon many waters,

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; practiced idolatry: God worship (the worship of elohim), and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the midst of God worshippers (worshippers of elohim); and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her head was a name written: Mystery Babylon the great, the mother of the harlots and of the abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Yahshua. And when I saw her, I wondered with great astonishment.

7 And the malak said to me: Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

9 And here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

18 And the woman whom you saw, is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.

Seven hills of Rome.

REVELATION 18:1-10

1 And after these things I saw another Malak come down from heaven, having Great Authority; and the earth was enlightened with His Glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My people, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her iniquities!

6 Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works! In the cup which she has mixed, mix for her double!

7 In the measure that she glorified herself, and lived luxuriously, so in that measure give her torment and sorrow! For she says in her heart: I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will see no sorrow.

8 Therefore, her plagues will come in one day—death, and mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for strong is Father Yahweh Who judges her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her, will wail over her, and lament for her, when they will see the smoke of her burning—

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying: Alas! Alas! That great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your Judgment has come!

The Prophet Daniyl was inspired by Yahweh to show us who will take over after the nuclear destruction to bring eternal peace. Notice, the destruction comes with the increase of knowledge, starting in 1934, that leads to the greatest time of trouble ever.

DANIYL 12:1, 4

1 And at that time, one who is like Yahweh will stand up at Abel; Yisrayl, the Great Priest, who stands at Abel to teach Yahweh's Just, Perfect Laws to the children of Your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation to that same time. And at that time, Your people will be delivered, everyone who will be found written in The Book of Life.

4 But you, O Daniyl, shut up the words, and seal the book to the time of The End; many will run to and fro, and knowledge will be increased.

For details concerning this prophecy, we recommend our book, The Mark of the Beast. There are many prophecies detailed in this book about the mark of the beast which the whole world has upon it at this time. You need to know what this mark is.

The Prophet Daniyl shows the great time of trouble for this generation in Daniyl 12. The end of the evil God worshippers is shown in:

DANIYL 7:7-11

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, then trampled the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots; and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld until the thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of days did sit, Whose vesture was white as snow, and the hair of His head like the pure wool; His throne was like the fiery flame, and His wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before Him; thousand thousands ministered to Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him; the Judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld, then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I beheld until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

Verse 11 shows this whole system is involved in ruling the world by force, ultimately resulting in a great nuclear burning. The prophecy shown in Revelation 18:9 is the same burning shown in Daniyl 7:11, Daniyl 12:1, and Mattithyah 24:29. This nuclear burning will leave only a few alive.

ISAYAH 24:1-6

1 Before Yahweh’s very Eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

Those few left have protection; otherwise, they would not survive. This shows just how widespread the destruction will be. Please remember the warning and what Yahweh sets before mankind, then says ‘choose’.

DEUTERONOMY 30:15

See, I have set before you this day life by righteousness, and death by destruction—

GENESIS 2:9, 17

9 And out of the ground Yahweh made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight, and desirable for food. The Tree of Life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of righteousness and evil was in the midst also.

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of righteousness and evil you must not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die.

Again, in this Last Generation all nations are warned.

MATTITHYAH 24:14

And this joyous Message of the Kingdom of Yahweh shall be preached in all the world from The House of Yahweh at Abel by the Witness Yisrayl; for Yahweh will be with him. He will preach this Message to all nations; and then The End will come.

Notice, in Yahshua’s Words, the protection for the few left.

MATTITHYAH 24:21-22

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the elect’s sake, those days will be shortened.

In verse 22, we see this is for the elect’s sake. These elect are called saints by Daniyl, in this Last Generation.

DANIYL 7:12-14

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their governments taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and behold, One like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of Days, and they were brought together before Him.

14 And there was given Him ruling Authority, and Glory, and a Kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should obey Him; His Government is an Everlasting Government, which will not pass away; and His kingdom is one which will not be destroyed.

Couple that with:

DANIYL 7:26-27

26 But the Judgment will sit, and they will take away his government, to consume and to destroy it completely.

27 Then the kingdoms and governments, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, will be given to the people of the saints of Yahweh, Whose Kingdom is an Everlasting Kingdom, and all governments will serve and obey Him.

SAINTS?

Notice the Words from the mouth of Yahshua Messiah. These Words were given to Him by Yahweh to give to us in this Last Generation. A saint is one who keeps the Commandments (whole Law) of Yahweh.

REVELATION 14:12, KJV

Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

REVELATION 14:12, BOY

In this manner are the saints purified—by keeping the Laws of Yahweh, in conformity with the faith, as Yahshua Messiah.

REVELATION 12:17, KJV

And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Those who keep the Commandments of Yahweh and have the Testimony of Yahshua Messiah are the saints of Yahweh.

Remember, the fourth beast that sits on seven hills removed the Names Yahweh and Yahshua from the inspired writings of the Prophets and Apostles and replace them with the titles of men and evil Gods. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church we find the following:

II. GOD REVEALS HIS NAME

203 God revealed himself to his people Israel by making his name known to them. A name expresses a person's essence and identity and the meaning of this person's life. God has a name; he is not an anonymous force. To disclose one's name is to make oneself known to others; in a way it is to hand oneself over by becoming accessible, capable of being known more intimately and addressed personally.

206 In revealing his mysterious name, YHWH ("I AM HE

WHO IS", "I AM WHO AM" or "I AM WHO I AM"), God says who he is and by what name he is to be called.

209 Out of respect for the holiness of God, the people of Israel do not pronounce his name. In the reading of Sacred Scripture, the revealed name (YHWH) is replaced by the divine title "LORD" (in Hebrew Adonai, in Greek Kyrios). It is under this title that the divinity of Jesus will be acclaimed: "Jesus is LORD."

IV. LORD

446 In the Greek translation of the Old Testament, the ineffable Hebrew name YHWH, by which God revealed himself to Moses,⁵⁹ is rendered as Kyrios, "Lord". From then on, "Lord" becomes the more usual name by which to indicate the divinity of Israel's God. The New Testament uses this full sense of the title "Lord" both for the Father and - what is new - for Jesus [Yahshua], who is thereby recognized as God Himself.⁶⁰

This prophecy is given in:

DANIYL 7:25

And he will speak great words against Yahweh, and will wear out; mentally attack to cause to fall away, the saints of Yahweh, and think to change times; Yahweh's Feast Days, and Laws; and they will be given into his hand until a time, and times, and the dividing of time.

The army of the so-called 'holy' Roman empire is seen in:

DANIYL 7:7

After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, then trampled the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

DANIYL 11:31

And the army will stand on his part, and they will pollute the sanctuary of strength, and will take away the daily, and they will place the Lord of heaven.

They made war against those who kept Yahweh's Laws, the saints.

DANIYL 7:25

And he will speak great words against Yahweh, and will wear out; mentally attack to cause to fall away, the saints of Yahweh, and think to change times; Yahweh's Feast Days, and Laws; and they will be given into his hand until a time, and times, and the dividing of time.

Yahweh gave this into his hands. Yes, Yahweh allowed the Roman Catholic Church to take righteousness from the earth and to make war against and change Yahweh's Laws. Just one example out of hundreds is the Seventh Day Sabbath. Did you know that Sunday is not the Seventh Day Sabbath, which the Fourth Commandment says to keep holy?

EXODUS 20:8-11

8 Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy.
9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,
10 But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of Yahweh your Heavenly Father. Therefore, in it you shall do the Work of Yahweh: you, and your wife, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your maidservant, and your cattle, and the stranger who dwells within your gates.
11 For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that are in them; and ceased from this work on the Seventh Day. Therefore, Yahweh blessed the Sabbath Day, and did righteous works on it.

The Commandment says to remember the Seventh Day to keep it holy. Sunday is not the Seventh Day. It's the first day of the week. This was changed by Pope Constantine, who instituted the death penalty on all Seventh Day Sabbath keepers.

DANIYL 7:25

And he will speak great words against Yahweh, and will wear out; mentally attack to cause to fall away, the saints of Yahweh, and think to change times; Yahweh's Feast Days, and Laws; and they will be given into his hand until a time, and times, and the dividing of time.

Regardless, there still remains the keeping of the Seventh Day Sabbath for the people of Yahweh.

HEBREWS 4:1-11

1 Therefore, since a promise of entering His rest remains, let us be fearful so that none of you should come short of it.
2 For this Message was preached to us, as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not benefit them, because they did not share in the Faith of those who obeyed—
3 However, we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said: So I vowed in My judgment; They will not enter into My rest, although the works were finished from the foundation of the world,
4 For He spoke in a certain place of the Seventh Day, in this way: And Yahweh rested the Seventh Day from all His works.
5 And in this place again: If they will enter into My Rest.
6 Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience,
7 Again, He designates a certain day, saying in David: "Today," after so long a time, as it has been said: Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.
8 Now Yahshua caused them to Rest in obedience to the Law, spoken of by Yahweh in a day previously.
9 Therefore, there remains the keeping of the Sabbath to the people of Yahweh,
10 For he who has entered into His rest has also ceased from his own works, as Yahweh did from His.
11 Therefore, let us be zealous to enter into that rest, so that no one will fall after the same example of unbelief.

YAHWEH DOES NOT FORCE RULE

Yahweh gives mankind free moral agency; that is, free choice. He sets before all mankind the Tree of Life, the House of Yahweh, that contains The Book of Yahweh, (Isayah 34:16) the inspired writings of Yahweh's Prophets and the Apostles.

HEBREWS 4:9

Therefore, there remains the keeping of the Sabbath to the people of Yahweh.

GENESIS 2:9

And out of the ground Yahweh made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight, and desirable for food. The Tree of Life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of righteousness and evil was in the midst also.

DEUTERONOMY 30:15-19

15 See, I have set before you this day life by righteousness, and death by destruction—
16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you can live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father can bless you in the land which you go in to possess.
17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—
18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.
19 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Therefore choose life, so both you and your children can live.

Notice what He says in verse 19...you must choose life. You choose life by practicing Yahweh's righteousness, such as the Ten Commandments.

EXODUS 20:3-17

3 You shall have no hinder gods (elohim) at all. They are in opposition against Me.
4 You shall not make for yourself any carved image; an idol, in the form of anything in heaven above, or on the earth beneath, or in the waters below.
5 You shall not bow down to them nor serve them; for I, Yahweh your Father, am a Heavenly Father Who is zealous for My House. The sexual sins of the fathers will be on the children to the third and fourth generation of those who transgress My Laws and change them.
6 But I will show My love to thousands who love Me by keeping My Laws.
7 You shall not take the Name of Yahweh your Heavenly Father to bring it to nothing, for Yahweh will not hold him guiltless who brings dishonor upon or profanes His Name.
8 Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy.
9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,
10 But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of Yahweh your Heavenly Father. Therefore, in it you shall do the Work of Yahweh: you, and your wife, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your maidservant, and your cattle, and the stranger who dwells within your gates.
11 For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that are in them; and ceased from this work on the Seventh Day. Therefore, Yahweh blessed the Sabbath Day, and did righteous works on it.

12 Honor your father and your mother, so your days can be long upon the land which Yahweh your Father is giving you.
13 You shall not murder.
14 You shall not commit adultery.
15 You shall not steal.
16 You shall not bear false testimony against your neighbor.
17 You shall not covet; lust after, your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that belongs to your neighbor.

I YAHCHANAN 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.
7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.
8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.
10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Verses 8 and 10 show that unless one practices keeping the Laws of Yahweh, that person does not belong to Yahweh. They belong to Satan and are not eligible to partake of the Tree of Life.

REVELATION 22:12-15

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.
13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.
14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they will have right to the Tree of Life, and will enter in through the gates into the City.
15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and worshippers of Gods (elohim) and everyone who professes to love, yet practices breaking the Laws.

NO LOVE IN THE LAST GENERATION

Your bible says it and mankind has proven the writings of Yahweh's Prophets and Apostles to be absolutely true.

I YAHCHANAN 3:10

In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

ISAYAH 59:8

They do not know the way of peace, and there is no Judgment in their goings: they have made themselves crooked paths; whoever walks on them will not know peace.

The whole world is struggling to keep peace within their states or nations, but they try to force peace. No one under force is peaceful. People can be forced to tolerate, but they are never at peace. The results of force are also seen in Isayah 59. This chapter actually describes this Last Generation that has been deceived (Revelation 12:9) and is struggling because they are cut off from the knowledge that brings peace. They do not know the way to peace.

ISAYAH 59:8

They do not know the way of peace, and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made themselves crooked paths; whoever walks on them will not know peace.

As you read the following verses, compare them with the uprisings and 41 wars raging in the world today.

ISAYAH 59:1-15

1 Behold, Yahweh's Hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; nor His Ear heavy, that it cannot hear.
2 But your own iniquities have separated you from your Father; and your own sins have caused Him to hide His face from you, so He will not listen.
3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; sin. Your lips have spoken lies, your tongue has muttered perverseness.
4 No one calls for Justice, nor does any plead for Truth. They trust in vanity; confusion, and speak lies; Scriptural untruths. They conceive mischief; trouble, and give birth to evil; sin.
5 They hatch vipers' eggs, and weave the spiders' web; he who eats their eggs dies, and when one is broken a viper bursts out.
6 Their webs will not serve as clothing, nor will they cover themselves with what they make; their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.
7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.
8 They do not know the way of peace, and there is no Judgment in their goings: they have made themselves crooked paths; whoever walks on them will not know peace.
9 Therefore Justice is far from us, nor does righteousness overtake us. We wait for light, but only see obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.
10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes; we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as the dead.
11 We groan like bears, all of us; we moan mournfully like doves; we look for Justice, but there is none—for Salvation, but it is far from us.
12 For our transgressions are multiplied before You, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them—
13 In transgressing and lying against Yahweh, and turning away from following our Father, speaking oppression and rebellion, conceiving and uttering from the mind words of falsehood:
14 So Judgment is driven backwards, and Justice stands afar off, for Truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.
15 Yes, Truth; the Laws, is suppressed; and he who departs from evil; upholds the Laws, is accounted as mad; makes himself a prey! Yahweh saw this, and it displeased Him that there was no Justice.

Why? Because Mankind made the choice to reject Yahweh and His Laws that would assure peace, joy, and love. As long as the nations and their religions refuse to teach and practice the Laws of peace, you will continue to grope in darkness for answers, and your end will be as described in:

Isayah 24:1-6, 18-20

1 Before Yahweh's very Eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

18 And it will come to pass, that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up from the midst of the pit will be caught in the snare; for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth are shaken.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is dissolved clean, the earth is shaken exceedingly.

20 The earth will reel to and fro like a drunkard, and will sway like a hut. The transgression in it will be heavy upon it; it will fall, and not rise again.

MATTITHYAH 24:21-22

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

MATTITHYAH 24:7, 29, 33-34

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes; environmental disasters, in place after place:

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

HOW TO START

You start by keeping your appointments with Yahweh to learn righteousness instead of learning evil like the Gods.

HEBREWS 4:8-11

8 Now Yahshua caused them to Rest in obedience to the Law, spoken of by Yahweh in a day previously.

9 Therefore, there remains the keeping of the Sabbath to the people of Yahweh,

10 For he who has entered into His Rest has also ceased from his own works, as Yahweh did from His.

EXODUS 20:8-11

8 Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

10 But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of Yahweh your Heavenly Father. Therefore, in it you shall do the Work of Yahweh: you, and your wife, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your maidservant, and your cattle, and the stranger who dwells within your gates.

11 For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that are in them; and ceased from this work on the Seventh Day. Therefore, Yahweh blessed the Sabbath Day, and did righteous works on it.

ISAYAH 58:13-14

13 If you turn away your foot from breaking the Sabbath: from doing your pleasure; your own business, your own pleasure, on My holy Day, and call the Sabbath a delight; the holy Day of Yahweh honorable, and will honor Him by not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor engaging in idle conversation:

14 Then you will find your joy in Yahweh; and I will cause you to ride on the high places of the earth, and feed you with the heritage of Yaaqob your father—for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.

That's how the saints of Yahweh are made.

Surely, you can see the wars taking place now. How long do you think it will be before you're involved? Nuclear wars will involve the whole world in this generation.

Yahweh bless your understanding.

JEFFREY: Welcome to YPN News exclusive interview, I'm Jeffrey Heimerman.

CATON: And I'm Caton Alexander.

JEFFREY: Thanks for joining us here this evening. We have a very distinguished guest who will be speaking with us shortly, his name is, Dr. Theodore Postol.

CATON: Dr. Postol is a Professor of Science Technology and National Security Policy at MIT (which is the Massachusetts Institute of Technology). He did his undergraduate work in physics and his graduate work in nuclear engineering. After receiving his PhD, Dr. Postol joined the staff of Argonne National Laboratory.

JEFFREY: Subsequently, he went to the Congressional Office of Technology Assessment to study methods of basing the MX missile, which is ICBM, an intercontinental ballistic missile known as the 'Peacekeeper'. It was more advanced than the older model known as the minuteman that most people are familiar with. Dr. Postol later worked as a scientific advisor to the Chief of Naval Operations. After leaving the Pentagon, Dr. Postol helped to build a program at Stanford University to train mid-career scientists to study developments in weapons technology, of relevance to defense and arms control policy.

CATON: In 1990, Dr. Postol was awarded the Leo Szilard Prize from the American Physical Society. In 1995, He received the Hillard Roderick prize from the American Association for the Advancement of Science and in 2001, he received the Nibert Weiner award from Computer Professionals for Social Responsibility for uncovering numerous and important false claims about missile defenses.

JEFFREY: Dr. Postol's expertise in nuclear weapons and missile technology has been highly sought after through many different forms of media interviews and podcasts, and his work has been featured in Technology Review, The New York Times and the Boston Globe Magazine, just to name a few.

CATON: Some of our viewers might best remember Dr. Postol from a 2017 RT interview with Sophie Shevardnadze, where he explained the ability the United States and other nuclear nations have to engulf the entire world in a nuclear war in 30 minutes to one hour.

JEFFREY: Here is a clip from that interview. Please take a look....

Excerpt from RT's Sophie & Co. interview with Dr. Theodore Postol

Sophie: Now Ted, tell me something, explain to me an amateur, how does one launch a nuclear weapon? Is it as easy as pressing a button? How long does it take for a nuclear missile to reach its target?

DR. POSTOL: The warning time could take minutes to occur. That is the Russian government or the American government could believe an attack is underway. They could assess the situation and then collect information and then make a decision whether or not to launch. That could take 10 or 15 minutes. In the case of actually launching a rocket, that would take 40, 50, 60 seconds again more or less, depending on procedures, which are easily changed. The rocket would then ignite. It would fly out of its silo or its launch hull in a submarine. It would typically undergo powered flight for about between 150-300 seconds, depending on whether or not the rocket is what's called a solid propellant or a liquid propellant (so in one case 5 minutes, the other case maybe 2 ½ minutes) and then it would release warheads. The warheads would float in the near vacuum of space under the influence of gravity and momentum and in about 20-25 or 28 minutes would arrive at their targets, re-enter the atmosphere and explode. So, the world could basically be finished off in anywhere from a half hour to an hour upon the arrival of these warheads. People who think about these things generally expect – nobody really knows what to expect – but if you had a massive exchange, most nuclear warheads would be delivered in a very short time; probably within a half hour or an hour interval.

JEFFREY: Now Dr. Postol, thank you for joining us here this evening. Can you hear us okay sir?

DR. POSTOL: Yes, I can. Thank you.

JEFFREY: Dr. Postol, I can imagine your level of expertise is highly sought after these days, especially with what's taking place in the Middle East and the surrounding area with these current events. So again, thank you for allowing us the time to speak with you this evening. I'd like to start off Dr. Postol...you were born in 1946 and that was one year after the use of the first atomic bombs that were dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. And then two years later the Dooms Day Clock was created by the Bulletin of Atomic Scientists, and the question that I'd like to start off with this evening...what was it like growing up in the beginning of the nuclear age and how did that influence you in your field of studies? You went on to study nuclear engineering, and you have quite an educated past in these type of fields, so how did that shape your future?

DR. POSTOL: I grew up--certainly my earliest recollections of nuclear weapons were probably...I was probably 9 or 10 years old. This came up in school. Because what would happen, is there was a great preoccupation in the 1950's and '60's with civil defense. So, people in the American schools would be instructed on how to protect themselves from a nuclear bomb. This was totally ridiculous. The instructions that were given to children were totally meaningless. And I don't think I was really aware of it at the time, because I hadn't studied nuclear weapons, but the idea was you would get under a desk and protect yourself from flying debris.

Of course, the civil defense people completely ignored the fact that the nuclear weapon is unlike a conventional explosion. It produces temperatures that are close to that at the center of the sun. Initially 100 million degrees Kelvin. The fireball may cool to a temperature of the surface of the sun. And of course, if you were in a target area. Your least trouble would be the shock wave. You would literally be burnt, incinerated while you were inside of the fireball. So, it was a very unrealistic program. And as I grew older and became educated about it, I found myself trying to explain to the public that the concept that the civil defense pushed made no sense. It was kind of like a panacea. It misled people into thinking that some-how they could protect themselves when, in fact, they could not.

This would be an important set of facts for people to understand, because there is nothing more immoral than telling people they are safe when they are not. I mean, the morality comes from explaining to people how they can do things to protect themselves. So, in this case basically, you have to avoid the use of nuclear weapons completely, because if nuclear weapons start to get used, people in areas that are targeted will not survive. And people in areas that are not targeted will also suffer terrible and horrifying consequences from secondary effects, like for example, nuclear radiation from what's called radioactive fallout. So there really isn't much escaping the consequences of a nuclear war, and telling people that they have a chance to do that when in fact the substance of your arguments is based on false information, is really immoral in my view. And that's really where I began to become very concerned about what governments, what the US government was telling its own population.

CATON: So, in the last 50 or 60 years, what has been your view in regards to the public's general awareness of the dangers or the threats of nuclear war, compared to how promoted it was or how advertised it was in the 40's, the 50's and the 60's?

DR. POSTOL: In my lifetime, I saw tremendous concern from the public sometime, at certain intervals of time. And my great concern at the moment is that the public seems to have no concern about the danger of nuclear war, when we are in a time interval where the danger of nuclear war is perhaps as large as it's ever been. During the Cold War, people were very worried about the possibility of nuclear war and they were careful. It doesn't mean that we didn't have many close calls. We did. And I often said to my professional colleagues, people who spent their careers on this problem, I often said that if you had told me that we would have a Cold War and not have destroyed ourselves, I would have not believed it. Although now, after rethinking the mechanisms we had in the cold war, I think I understand better why we never destroyed ourselves. I think the reason we never destroyed ourselves is important. And the reason is that the political leaders were so afraid of nuclear weapons and nuclear weapons being used and then being used in very large numbers and getting out of control. That whenever something happened, their immediate impulse was to do everything they could to stop the process, to find out what's going on, to step back, to ask questions, to be very conservative about believing what they're hearing. And this saved us, certainly saved us during the Cuban Missile Crisis. And it saved us at other times too. And so, it wasn't a random situation in the sense that you could expect that incidents that had the potential to cause a nuclear accident leading to an unwanted nuclear war were not random, political leaders were so afraid that they offset the danger to some extent doesn't mean we could have failed, but we didn't during that time.

Now we're in a time where people have seemed to lost their fear of nuclear weapons. At least a great extent. In terms of their public reaction and their public statements. Let me just give you an example that just happened a few days ago. Dimetry Medvedev, a former President of Russia, got into one of these exchanges with Donald Trump. And Donald Trump, in reaction, claims he moved several nuclear ballistic submarines closer to Russia in response. Now quite honestly, I don't know how you would do that. I could give a long discussion about how our submarines operate. I think it would be very difficult to do that because they're in a very rigid routine where they're deployed to certain areas, there's an independence of movement they have within those areas. There's a rigid schedule about when they move in and out of those areas, so I don't know how you would do that based on a command from the President. So, my guess is that he actually did nothing, but made a claim. That's only my guess. But it's not the kind of saber rattling you want to do. You don't want to raise people's concerns. So, that's a small thing really.

Earlier the Ukrainians attacked a Russian strategic early warning radar in Armavir, Russia. That could have triggered and accidental nuclear response from Russia, because that radar is critical to their ability to look into the Indian Ocean. That's not their most dangerous attack corridor, but if you all of a sudden lost the only ability you had to monitor a given area where attacks could come against your country, it would cause concern. And the Russians are very careful. I'm pretty sure I know what they would've done, but by doing this carefully, I want to under-score, I think the Russian's are very careful with the way they handle their weapons. You still raise the chances of an accident. You still increase the chances of an accident. This is not the kind of thing you want people to have a posture and an attitude that these weapons are there, they pose a great danger to all of us, because an accident on one side is an accident for everyone. Nobody survives an accident by one side or the other. So, when Trump, some of the things that he's threatening the Europeans and the rest of the world all at once. Because any accident that would occur would involve everyone. And this is the kind of political attitude that you want them to have. You want them to have the attitude that, 'I shouldn't do anything because everybody will be adversely affected, will be killed. If I make a mistake.' You want them to have that in their head and if they don't, there's a great danger we all face.

JEFFREY: Dr. Postol, you're very correct when you say that the leaders today have seemed to have lost their fear of using nuclear weapons. It's almost as if it's a household word now that's thrown around to go ahead and 'nuke them', to use nuclear weapons. Now, you mentioned Russia, and recently President Putin, he proposed new rules for using nuclear weapons and said any attack from a non-nuclear state that was backed by a nuclear one, like we see with the United States supplying Ukraine with certain ATACMS missiles and so forth, would be considered a joint attack. So, we see that and we also see that NATO has been building up in the European countries, basically right on Russia's back door, right on their borders; and of course, Russia has said that this is a red-line that you don't cross. So, the question is, with all the military buildup are we, the United States and other NATO members, are we pushing Russia, are we backing Russia into a corner, to where they're going to be forced to use, or defend themselves with nuclear weapons?

DR. POSTOL: Well, you pointed out the Russian doctrine, their belief system, their stated rules for engaging a nuclear weapons state includes a response. If a nuclear weapons state uses a surrogate state – in this case Ukraine – to attack a vital interest of Russia; now this means, and that's a correct reading of the Russian doctrine, this means that Russia, would have been justified according to its doctrine, to have attacked the United States and western Europe when Ukraine executed this attack on Russian strategic bombers with drones. This would have justified a Russian attack on certainly the United States and Great Britain. Because the Ukrainians executed this extremely ill-considered, unwise attack. Now fortunately, the Russian doctrine is not law. I mean it's not law in the sense that Putin could have been justified within the framework of Russian doctrine to have attacked the United States and Great Britain. However, he understood something that I'm not sure other political leaders understood. That if he executed such an attack, it would also be the end of Russia. Because he would start an action-reaction cycle that nobody could stop. So, he very wisely chose not to act, according to Russia's doctrine. So, the people who were absolutely reckless were the leaders of the United Kingdom and the United States. These people were, the terminology I sometimes use is, tickling the tigers tail. They absolutely knew or should have known, that Russia would have been totally justified in responding with nuclear weapons against their countries. Now why would you want to take such a risk? It's just hard to believe that a political leader would be so reckless with the lives of their nation, the lives of their public and the lives of their nations.

Now, my own view – which is not popular. I want to warn your audience what I'm about to say is not popular, but I'm happy to discuss it – Putin has shown to be one of the few adults in the room in this whole process. The reckless behavior has come mostly from the west. The west decided that it wanted to destroy Russia for reasons that I must say, cannot be justified intellectually. It's crazy doctrine. And because they wanted to damage Russia strategically, they misused diplomatic means to lie to the Russians diplomatically. They violated the Minsk 2 agreement. They used the Minsk 2 agreement to delay, to create a delay. So, they would arm Ukraine with Western weapons, while the Russians were trying honestly to see the agreement implemented. It was agreed to in 2015. It was delayed until 2022. We now know that the members who negotiated the treaty, Angela Merkel and François Hollande, in France have stated openly that the treaty was negotiated without any intention of following the terms for negotiation. It was cynically negotiated to cause Russia to not react to the arming of Ukraine by NATO. That was the way this diplomatic activity was going. It's like Ivan the Terrible is inviting you to a dinner for a discussion about peace and poisoning everybody at the table. This is a misuse [of diplomacy]... how can you engage in any kind of diplomacy if you use the diplomacy as a means to deceive the individual or the nation you are negotiating with so that you can put them at a disadvantage or attack them.

We did the same thing indecently with Iran. The United States was carrying on a negotiation with Iran over their enrichment program. And one day before the meetings, that were supposed to occur, I think June 14th, on June 13th we attacked Iran without warning. It was in some sense worse than what the Japanese did to the United States on December 7th, 1941, because the Japanese were delayed. They were going to tell us they were going to attack, but its questionable if minutes of warning is adequate. But nevertheless, this is a misuse of diplomacy, but then it makes it difficult or impossible to continue using diplomacy in the future. If you can't be trusted to not be lying...I've had the privilege of knowing many professional diplomats, not these people we currently have today, who I'd never call professional diplomats. And all of them, and I have asked this question of every diplomat that I've known: Do you ever lie in a diplomatic negotiation? You may omit information. You may choose not to share certain kinds of information. You have a negotiating position and a negotiating position may have fallback positions. You may not reveal that during the negotiation until you need to use those fallback positions. That's the kind of thing that goes on in a diplomatic negotiation, but you never lie and say 'We're at peace, we will not attack you. We're negotiating a peace treaty and we're in fact trying to position ourselves to be more effective in a sneak attack on you.' You wouldn't do that. You would not be part of that if you were a diplomat. And this is dangerous posture that we've taken.

CATON: You mentioned the attack from Japan on the United States back in 1945, we had the attack. The dropping of the first atomic bomb in Japan on the 6th of August and one three days later on the 9th. The Philosopher George Santenayana said "Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it." And it's interesting because HBO released a documentary in 2007, 62 years later, called "White Light, Black Rain" and they asked a lot of the young people, the youth on the streets, what significant event occurred in August of 1945 and the majority of them could not answer it. My question is based on the current defense logic, you talked a little bit about diplomacy and then striking, does it look like society will repeat history or create a new history because of the vast amount and size of the global nuclear arsenal?

DR. POSTOL: Well, I can tell you if we repeat history, there will be no history after it. That I can tell you, because the numbers of weapons are so large and the level of devastation would be so large and encompassing. We have no idea. We honestly have no way of knowing what the consequences are. Let me give you an example of that. When I was in the Pentagon, I learned about this group of people who were looking at the possibility of global climate change, caused by smoke injected into the atmosphere by nuclear attacks, by the combustion of mass fires that would cause cities to be incinerated. The fires would be much more lethal than the blast waves. Now when I saw that, I was in the Pentagon at the time working for the chief of naval operations. I was very excited about this when I learned about it because one of my jobs was to review the nuclear war plans. I was really there. I wasn't some high mucky-muck talking about abstract figures with colored slides. I was there, looking at these ground zeros. Looking at the physical effects. None of this nonsense of you know oh there's a big option zero. I was involved in the direct planning. I was an adviser to the chief. That was part of my responsibilities. And one of the things that disturbed me, the moment I began, got involved in that - I was a neophyte when I came in - and I saw that our American assessments of casualties did not include mass fires. And I knew from my own calculable work, because I was very interested in nuclear weapons, I knew a lot about nuclear weapons effects. I did not [inaudible] saw the war plans, but I knew a lot of about the physical effects. I had studied those in detail. So, the moment I saw these things, I said, "My God, you're going to kill vast numbers of people that we're not reporting to our political leaders. And that worried me because the policy implication I was worried about is that an American political leader would execute what they thought was a limited nuclear attack in a crisis and they'd kill tremendously larger numbers of people than they expected to. And it would be a horrifying decision to make and to face anyway. And I said, that would guarantee-how would the other side react, even if there was such a thing as escalation control, which I never believed in and can explain to you why it's nonsense coming out of certain parts of American political science communities. Its total nonsense. But that was a doctrine held as if it made sense in the Pentagon. So, there was all kinds of contingency planning - small nuclear attacks. They weren't small, they were vast in scale. But they thought they were small or smaller. And I looked at this and said, 'My God we gotta do something about this.' But of course, I'm only one individual and transmitting my knowledge to the large bureaucracy, which indecently was not very interested in having a correct assessment (laughing), that's a tremendous job.

So, when I learned that there was this outside group talking about the effects on the atmosphere, I jumped on it. I'll be honest, I'll be open, I was motivated to find any political [inaudible] that was political to try to get these [inaudible] making political decisions [inaudible] to work on that. I want to be aware of it and I want the chief of naval operations to be aware of it. So, I started going to their meetings and I wrote reports to the chief of naval operations. I was trying to get the navy to become an advocate for dealing with mass fires from nuclear attacks. I put together briefings arguing that the navy should advocate - as one of the services that was delivering nuclear weapons - should advocate, their nuclear war plans should include the consequences of fires, so we would have a proper assessment of casualties, or much closer to it. And I failed, just like everybody else did. I met people afterwards who were trying to do similar things. And we still don't include fires in the effects of nuclear weapons. It's incredible, because they are fantastic killers of people. They would kill many more people than we actually assess and tell our own political leaders. And then there are the physical effects on the atmosphere that could cause all kinds of changes, we don't know. I think the people who do this work will get angry with me, because I know some of them. I've talked with them and I'm not trying to undermine the scientific integrity of their work, when I say what I'm about to say. But I don't believe these models that they use, that they are trying to make. I just think a computer model, even though its very sophisticated and they are very professional in the way they work on these models, I don't believe the models can capture much of what might go on that would make the consequences worse than what they were saying; may be better, but I think it would probably be worse. But it's unknowable in my view, because you just can't model every detail of the atmosphere. It's not in our reach, certainly at this time.

So, when I say that the models are not – they call it nuclear winter now – but of climate effects, atmospheric effects, cause, it's not just nuclear winter. For example: the atmosphere is divided into the troposphere and the stratosphere and the troposphere is a region of the atmosphere that goes up to maybe 30 kilometers – 40,000 feet or so – where the temperature drops, you know the temperature of the earth's surface is much closer to 70 degrees Fahrenheit and it drops to a very low temperature 40-60 degrees below zero or more and then the temperature becomes relatively uniform, because all the mixing occurs in the troposphere. The troposphere would literally merge with the stratosphere, because the smoke would get heated by the sun in the troposphere and the smoke would cause a rise into the stratosphere. We would not have a normal atmosphere. We learned that later. Earlier in the modeling we did not know this. And then of course, all that smoke in the troposphere, that's all carbon material...carbon. The ozone which protects us from ultraviolet radiation is going to hit the surface of that carbon and get absorbed. God knows what the ozone layer is going to look like. Now there'll be a blockage of light from these particles, but the ozone layer could disappear completely and it would be periods of time where the ultraviolet radiation could be so intense that people on the surface of the earth would not be able to be outdoors, because the ultraviolet gives you sunburn. That's why you have a UV index, you see in the weather forecast, you know. And in fact, the ultraviolet can be so intense that it would blind people. They would have to have special glasses and skin protection.

God knows, what the environment could look like after a nuclear war. We don't know. We don't know. And so, we're looking at Armageddon at a level that's beyond what we understand God could have conceptualized could happen. This is extraordinary. And whose gonna play with that kind of destiny for the planet? Let's not only think of humans, but every mammal that is subject to ultraviolet, cattle, small mammals – subject to blindness, sunburn – we're talking about a catastrophe that could affect a very large part of life on earth. Not all life, but a very large part of it. We just don't know. We literally don't know. The research on this--I'm an advocate for continuing the scientific research on this, but when I say we don't know, I'm not attacking the people who do the work, I'm just saying these models are never going to be perfect, but we can get them more refined.

But this is not the kind of destiny for humanity that we should be playing with. There's nothing that could be worth it. There's nothing that could be worth it. We don't even have an ideological argument with the Russians. We did at one time. I think Russian Communism was a terrible thing myself. I'm not against socialism incidentally, I think looking after your fellow human is an obligation every one of us have, in my view. We need to look after the disenfranchised – the weaker people, you know, the people who are not as fortunate as us – I'm totally committed to that idea. So, unfettered Capitalism is a bad thing. Just as a kind of repressive central – I don't like to call it communism because it's a political system – but a repressive economic system is also a bad thing. But something in between, is something we need as human beings. It's certainly not a difference that deserves, or justifies a nuclear war, that could end all higher forms of life on the planet, or cause a transition that could affect the planet for hundreds of years. You only need to not be breathing air for a few, tens of minutes to be dead. A few hundred years or even decades of an extraordinary hostile environment could take care of future generations of humans. It doesn't have to happen all at once. So, you cannot rule out the possibility of extinguishing human life, along with a lot of other life forms, if you had a large-scale nuclear exchange. This is serious stuff.

JEFFREY: Dr. Postol I'm glad you mentioned the mass fires. I have a question here for you towards the end. And, as we saw with the TAPPS report that the scientists came out with early on, predicting what would take place with the world, with a very small exchange of the nuclear weapons – not nearly what we have today – I think a third of roughly what the nations possess; how it would thrust the earth into a very cold, dark nuclear winter and you're right, we haven't experienced that so we're only speculating and those models they can't really even come close to seeing what it will really be like with an all-out nuclear exchange. Now, I did want to ask you one question on the Iranian nuclear agreement, and just switching topics briefly here, but with Iran facing these snap-back sanctions here at the end of the month from the United States, how likely, do you see Iran making a deal with the US regarding their nuclear program considering the US has basically either pulled out or broken all the previous agreements? Is it likely that they'll get anywhere with a nuclear agreement with Iran?

DR. POSTOL: Well, I don't know how you could trust the United States in a diplomatic agreement. I've tried. The way I have always, and I want to underscore, ALWAYS worked in my career...keep in mind I worked in the Pentagon, I was a military adviser to the chief of naval operations. Now I had my own views, but I had responsibilities that were military in character. So, I was providing scientific and technical advice on the use of nuclear weapons. So, one of the things that I've always done and tried to do is to put myself in the mindset of every potential adversary the United States was dealing with.

So, for example, I was very interested in the Soviet (and I say Soviet) anti-ballistic missile system around Moscow. And I spent a lot of time trying to understand why the Soviets would build this system, because I had technically analyzed it and it was a worthless system. I couldn't understand. So, I was very concerned, because I knew that American political decision-makers were manipulated by the bureaucracy. Not necessarily intentionally, but the bureaucracy has its own weird way of doing things and thinking of things. So, I asked myself, do the Russians, do the Soviet leadership really believe that this system could work? And the reason that I was concerned, is because this system could give them some level of protection that could get us all killed. That's why I was very worried. So, I spent a lot of time trying to understand our potential adversaries. And I've always done that. I do not understand anybody who claims to be a military or a person whose looking for peace. A person who's a diplomat. As a diplomat that's what you engage in, in diplomacy. You try to understand what the concerns of your potential adversary are. You try to find common ground, that allow you to reach a mutual understanding that keeps you from killing each other. That's what you're doing as a diplomat and you should be doing that as a military planner. You know, it's just that simple. It's always been obvious to me.

So, when I look at the Russians, I say, "What do they want?" And I've read a lot of Russian literature. I think the greatest book I ever read, when people ask me, is War and Peace by Tolstoy. There's nothing I've read that's close to it. Maybe The First Circle by Solzhenitsyn. But there's nothing in my experience in Western literature, and I'm not a deeply educated person. I'm more of a physicist, so I don't have a great ensemble of great literature I can point to having read. But those books are existential in their depths. How can a culture produce that kind of stuff and not be taken seriously? And you listen to people talk about the Soviets and the Russians; their animals, they're this, they're that. I know it's not true. I've worked with Russians when I was at MIT. I established a group when Perestroika began. I established a group at MIT where we invited Russian scientists to work on military security (arms control) questions, to work as members of our group. We collaborated in analyzing problems in arms control that we felt were important for both our countries to address. And I met these Russians. They were wonderful people. I still would trust my life with any of them. And I met a bunch of Chinese later on who I also felt that way; still feel that way about. They are wonderful people – ethical, moral thinking – concerned about people, concerned about what's right, concerned about their children. These caricature's that are painted by our political people who claim to be experts on these other societies...are immoral...it's immoral to be lying about other people this way. And anybody who's a human being who actually has had any international experience – you don't need to have it, you just need to be a smart person and understand that we're all human – but if you've had any international experience, you know that these statements, these analyses can't be right.

And here we are facing the Russians, facing the Chinese, threatening to have a war with China? Why would we have a war with China? What the Chinese are doing is building wealth for themselves. The Chinese are merchants. They're what I would call enlightened merchants. They want to trade with your country and make your country rich along with themselves. They want to be rich, no caution about it. They really want to be rich. But they don't want to destroy your country. They want you to be rich, because it makes them richer; because when they trade with you and you're already rich, they have even more trade with you. Why is this a bad thing? Why is it bad relative to going into a country like the West has done and raping the country of its natural resources and turning the country into a hell-hole of poverty and walking away with everything that's possible and leaving the country destitute. Why is that a more justifiable alternative than what the Chinese are doing? You want to have a war with them over this? By the way, if we had a war with them, and I keep telling people at every opportunity; we will lose it. I want to be clear. Anyone who thinks that having a war with China is going to come out to the advantage of the United States or it's Western allies is a fool. We will LOSE it. They have the military power to defeat us.

The Russians have defeated us in Ukraine. And let me tell you what the Russian's are doing in Ukraine is a small thing relative to what the Chinese will do to us if we get into a war with them. It will be worse. So, let's use some enlightenment and common sense. We don't need to have a war with these countries, because they have honest self-interests that do not threaten our interests and if we try to get into military conflicts with them, we will lose and we will destroy and kill a lot of people. This is why peace is really the only sensible--I mean forget about morality; you can have a great moral concern that drives you. You don't have to be moral to believe in this. All you have to do is be rational and understand economics and the destiny of the world, if you allow people to be industrious and trade with them and allow them to make wealth. China is not a military threat to the United States. It's ridiculous. It's total fiction, that these people will get paid...there's one of our students, from my program, I won't say too much to identify him, but this guys totally failed out in the program. He's now at some think tank talking about China's propensity (laughing), you know. He writes articles about why we need to have a war with China. I mean, this is the kind of nonsense. And it's a distortion of morality and it's a distortion of economic enlightenment. It's just stupid. Jeffrey Sachs is good at that, he just calls it stupid and he's right. It sounds kind of blunt, but it's correct.

So, these nuclear weapons are a grave danger and we really have to not have a war between all these powerful, technically advanced, wealthy states, like China and Russia, United States, Great Britain, NATO. These states are the greatest danger to themselves, if they allow themselves to get involved in a war that escalates to nuclear. It's just crazy. Unfortunately, we have political leadership that doesn't seem to understand that. I think the populations, certainly in Europe, the European populations are really reacting to the political leadership in Europe. My gravest concern is that the political leadership that's currently in charge will do something to precipitate a military confrontation before they can be replaced with more rational leadership. I think more rational leadership could be in the future, because I think the average person in the street looks at these people and shakes their heads and say, 'What's this about? Russia invading western Europe?' What does Russia want with western Europe? Russia wants to trade with Western Europe or not. What the political leadership of western Europe had done...if I were just a grand strategist and I had no, not a modicum of moral in my thoughts, except power, the last thing I would do would be to push Russia and China into each-other's arms. Why would I do that if all I wanted was to increase my power? I mean, I'm not talking morality, I'm just talking grand strategy from the point of view of the complete absence of morality, looking to increase your power. Why would you do this? The stupidity of this is hard to believe. So, what are we doing? And the Europeans and certainly NATO, you're pushing at China? The United States is the instigator, but NATO, they're not innocent bystanders, they're active in this.

I think Xi Jinping and Vladimir Putin have done a brilliant political thing, because what they have done is, China and Russia have a long history of ups and downs together and there's a deep mistrust in each society for the other. And what Putin and Xi have done is they have worked tremendously hard and overtly at talking about a warm trusting relationship. They have done everything to smooth over the biases in each of their societies against the other's societies. This is not an accident. They understand what they are doing and I applaud them for it. I think it's good for both societies. It's good for the world and it's certainly good for a constructive, peaceful alliance between Russia and China, and I applaud them for it. It would be nice if we saw similar strategic thinking on the part of political leadership in the West. And I hope maybe we'll see it before the West runs itself into a deep ditch that it can't climb out of. [inaudible] and its political leadership is doing everything to accelerate the economic catastrophe. It's hard to believe that anyone could be so foolish. It's incomprehensible to me. I'm sorry if I've said too much.

CATON and JEFFREY: It's fine. You're fine.

CATON: For my last question here, again thank you for your time. I know its Saturday evening when you kick back and relax.

DR. POSTOL: That's okay. That's okay. That's okay.

CATON: The doomsday clock...

DR. POSTOL: Oh, I'm sorry should I go back and answer the question? Would that help?

CATON: What was that?

DR. POSTOL: I think Iran would not be able to enter an agreement with the United States because of the political environment that's been created by the behavior of the United States, actually Western Europe and, of course, Israel. I would look at Netanyahu, now am I gonna trust this guy? If I were an American President, I wouldn't trust him (laughing). And of course, the Americans are co-belligerents in this incomprehensible human slaughter in Gaza. So, I don't see how the Iranian's can accept--can negotiate an agreement. I think they'll try in order to see if they can put off more military violence. But I don't see how they can do it. Incidentally, I should also point out that they can build nuclear weapons right now. The effort to destroy that capability was a total failure. I could explain that to your audience, maybe at another talk, if you want me to do that. But basically, the Iranians have 60% enriched uranium. It takes nothing to go from 60% to 90%. It takes almost nothing, next to nothing. And they have the resources, a very, very, small amount of resources would allow them to do it. And they certainly have those resources. And the resources would be small and easy to hide. I have a whole briefing on this that I could give your audience, if they were sufficiently interested, no problem. But they can do it right now. So, the question is 'Will they do it?' and I have no answer to that. Their best strategy would be not to declare themselves a nuclear weapons state and simply leave it up to everybody to guess. So, what we would have is two undeclared nuclear weapons states in the Middle East; Iran and Israel. And Iran does not need as many nuclear weapons as Israel does, because Israel is a much smaller country, with a much smaller population and mortal damage could be done to Israel with a very small number of atomic bombs. Although Israel also may be able to do mortal damage to Iran, even though it's got nearly ten times the population. So, I think it's going to be a standoff. I hope it's going to be a standoff because the alternative could be horrific.

JEFFREY: Dr. Postol, you're a very humble man and we appreciate your time and you are a very educated individual on many different levels. I do have one final question for you this evening?

DR. POSTOL: Sure. Sure.

JEFFREY: The author of the Peaceful Solution, Yisrayl Hawkins, he wrote a character education program, and he did push educating people as you talked about yourself in getting people educated on the prospects of nuclear war. But he grew up as a farm boy in Oklahoma, had parents that were share croppers and their excitement for the evening was reading out of the Bible. That's really all they had. So, he (Yisrayl Hawkins) looked at the world events as it pertained to what he saw in the scriptural passages and he thought very highly of your work; and I'm going to mention one of them here briefly. But the work that you did where you explained that the earth could actually be fully engulfed in a nuclear war in 30 minutes to an hour. He cited that in many of his newsletters and he had monthly magazines that he wrote because he was an educator of peace and he did want people to know what they were facing. So, again he thought very highly of you and the work that you've done.

You're a very factual man. And one passage that always stood out to him was found in the Book of Revelation, that talked about a one hour burning. And you mentioned the mass fires that would ensue from an all-out nuclear war. And that is something that the world has not experienced yet. We don't know the tremendous devastation, but we know it's going to be absolutely horrible. So, my final question for you from a scientific standpoint, your expert knowledge in nuclear engineering, in understanding missile systems and the weapons systems that are possessed by the nation's today, can you explain how that is possible, that the earth could be burned in one hour?

DR. POSTOL: (a bit surprised) Well, when a nuclear weapon detonates in the middle of the nuclear weapon, as it's giving off its peak, releasing most of its energy, the temperature inside the weapon can reach 100 million degrees Kelvin. That's five times the temperature at the center of the sun. This is not a high explosive, the energy densities are extraordinary. And when the energy, of course, propagates out into the surrounding environment it creates a fireball which is a very hot ball of air which is roughly, a modern weapon is roughly a mile in diameter, or three-quarters; depending upon the yield of the weapon. That fireball, when it's expanding and cooling in maybe half a second, so it happens quickly and its temperature is still hotter than the surface of the sun, except it's miles away from people. It's not millions of miles away or hundreds of millions of miles away, it's miles away. So, the thermal flash, the amount of light and heat is so intense that literally things explode into flames, explode into flames, they don't just ignite, they explode into flames. And this is what happens in a city that's attacked and the amount of combustible materials in cities is enormous. It's hundreds of pounds per square foot of combustible material, much larger than in a forest. A forest is pounds per square foot. Maybe 5 or 10 lbs/sq. ft.

Cities are built by people over long times. Lots of materials brought into them for construction, some of them are plastic, some of them are wood and materials that combust like aluminum and those cities would burn. And they would fill the atmosphere with fire, fire and smoke and toxic materials and the earth will be--the cities will be on fire within an hour or two of these attacks on each other and the smoke will spread over days and weeks and the temperature of the earth will change and the ultraviolet coming from the sun, will increase over time or... temperatures will fluctuate in different parts of the world in unpredictable ways. It will be Armageddon. The Bible does speak in imagery, we understand what's behind the imagery; but to speak of the earth burning in an hour, is a perfectly reasonable image that really is the truth. I have no problem with that image from the Bible, myself.

All you have to do though. Let me just make a comment, I don't think that you'll have a problem with it, but I just want to say it. All you have to do is care about human beings. The Bible is a great thing and I have many deeply religious friends and I respect them completely in their religion, but myself, I'm not very religious. This doesn't mean I don't respect it; I greatly respect it. But I care about people and people who care about people...we all should care about people, we're humans. My view is different from the Bible. My view is we're meaningless in the galaxy, in the universe.

That's my own, I'm not challenging, we don't need to debate that. But what makes everything meaningful, EVERYTHING MEANINGFUL, is that we're all humans and we owe it to each other as humans to be kind to each other, to look after each other. Because we love people, we love each other, we work with each other, we have relations with each other. We're instinctively social animals, that's what we're obligated to do. So that's why we need to look after each other. Anyway, I just wanted to say that to your audience.

CATON & JEFFREY: Thank you. Thank you. You're absolutely right.

DR. POSTOL: I greatly appreciate that I was singled out by your mentor and leader. I greatly appreciate that.

CATON: And we thank you for taking the time out to speak with us this evening. Once again, your points of view, you're absolutely right on what society needs, if we could just show care and concern towards one another and actually, truly work towards diplomacy, true diplomacy and dialog towards peaceful solutions, we can actually change the face of society; not through military actions, but through means of peace. And education is a big thing that Yisrayl Hawkins talked about, and obviously you promote as well and we agree 100% that military solution is not the answer, because there are no winners with war.

DR. POSTOL: Absolutely not.

CATON: That's right and especially nuclear war; there won't be any winners at all. Dr. Postol, we do thank you for taking the time this evening and speaking with us. We look forward to speaking with you hopefully another time in the future and we look forward to working with you, as we make moves towards peace.

DR. POSTOL: Thank you.
