ISAYAH 34:16

Search out The Book of Yahweh, and read. Not one of these will be neglected.

For it is written: Yahweh is their shepherd; for His mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.

The Book of Yahweh is the complete writings of the inspired Prophets of Yahweh and the Apostles of Yahshua Messiah, all in one Book. However, many are unfamiliar with The Book of Yahweh because it was taken to Rome during the removal of The House of Yahweh (Temple) in Jerusalem, and hidden in Rome for over 1,500 years. Later, the Catholic Church was forced to let a rendition (King James version) of it out to the public but only with the true Names of the Creator, Yahweh and the Savior, Yahshua replaced with the titles Lord and God.

Many hours of research went into restoring The Book of Yahweh, which was made available in 1987 by The House of Yahweh in Abilene, Texas. For more information about the history behind the conspiracy of the Catholic Church to take away the pure word of Yahweh, call, write or email The House of Yahweh.

The Beatitudes

Some of the most commonly known yet misunderstood verses of Scripture, read by the Christian world, are the Beatitudes. In them, Yahshua Messiah spoke directly to The House of Yahweh.

---

Webster's Revised Unabridged Dictionary, 1913 edition, gives the following definition of the word beatitude.

Beatitude = Any one of the nine declarations (called the Beatitudes), made in the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. v. 3-12), with regard to the blessedness of those who are distinguished by certain specified virtues.

The Beatitudes or “The Beautiful Attitudes” give us the keys to self-examination and ways to bring ourselves to perfection so we can receive Sacred Spirit from Yahweh.

MATTITHYAH 5:1-12

- 1 Now seeing the multitudes, He went up on a mountain and sat down. His Disciples came to Him,
- 2 And He opened His mouth and taught them, saying:
- 3 Blessed are the poor in spirit; enduring hardship and being humble, for theirs is the Kingdom of Yahweh.
- 4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
- 5 Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
- 6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they will be filled.
- 7 Blessed are the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.
- 8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see Yahweh.
- 9 Blessed are the peacemakers; for they will be called the sons of Yahweh.
- 10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Yahweh.
- 11 Blessed are you, when men will revile and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake.
- 12 Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for greatest is your reward in heaven, for in the same manner they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

THE POOR IN SPIRIT

MATTITHYAH 5:3

Blessed are the poor in spirit; enduring hardship and being humble, for theirs is the Kingdom of Yahweh.

Christian bible commentators try to translate the word blessed as “happy,” not knowing that blessings only come from keeping Yahweh’s Laws. The word poor usually paints the picture of someone lacking things they need.

Thayer's Greek Lexicon page 557 tells us that the word translated poor means destitute of wealth, influence, position, honor, conscious of their spiritual need.

This same source directs us to several Hebrew root words. The first is the Hebrew word aniy listed as word #6041 in Strong's Hebrew Dictionary, which means afflicted, humble, lowly, needy, poor. This word comes from word #6031, from #6030, which means to heed, to pay attention.

The second is the Hebrew ebyown listed as Hebrew word #34 meaning destitute, poor. This word comes from Hebrew word #14 which means to breath after, to be acquiescent, consent, be willing.

Those who are “poor in spirit” are the ones in Yahweh’s House who realize that they are not complete in Him at this time, and greatly yearn for more of His presence in their lives. These are the ones who desire to love Yahweh with all their heart, soul, and might! They are never satisfied with themselves the way they presently are. The poor in spirit never think of themselves “more highly than they ought.” The poor in spirit are those rich in faith, and have a great desire to enter Yahweh’s Kingdom.

Those who are poor in spirit are those who are continually conscious of their spiritual needs. They are those who feel a deep sense of spiritual destitution and comprehend their ‘nothingness’ before Yahweh. They realize that they are nothing without Yahweh and greatly desire to have contact with their Heavenly Father.

The poor in spirit are those who are humble and lowly in mind. They remind themselves to remain conscious of their ignorance and unworthiness. In this way, there is no room for pride to enter the mind.

It takes humility to remain in The House of Yahweh. The poor in spirit will have a humble opinion of themselves. Being ever mindful of their sins, and the curses they brought, will keep them mindful that they have no righteousness of their own.

The humble feel their dependence on Yahweh in all things, whether physical or spiritual, and look to Him for supplying their every need. They also realize and personally feel the need for forgiveness when they sin.

Yahshua said the poor in spirit are blessed, for they will receive the Kingdom of Heaven. This promise belongs to them if they will continue to overcome sin. Yahshua Messiah's commission was to preach the glad tidings to the poor. So it is up to us to take what we hear and act upon it so we become a doer and not a hearer only. To the poor in spirit, the message not only reaches their ears, but their hearts as well. It enters in and is applied in their lives. They receive and embrace it with the utmost joy and gladness.

By qualifying to be heirs to the Kingdom, they will have a right to it and shall enjoy it to the fullest as promised by Almighty Yahweh.

THOSE WHO MOURN, WILL BE COMFORTED

MATTITHYAH 5:4

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Believe it or not, there is a blessing for those who mourn. But this comfort is promised to those who mourn because of the sin in this world, not those who mourn because of the sorrow brought upon themselves through foolishness. Those who mourn over their own sins with grief of mind, are called blessed. All mourning is traced directly or indirectly to sin. Scripture tells us that no man is worthy of the glory of Yahweh because we have all sinned. The many sins in life committed against Yahweh, our Heavenly Father, must grieve our souls. We must mourn knowing that our sins cut us off from our Heavenly Father, Yahweh. When we sin, we dishonor our Heavenly Father.

When we fail in our desire to be righteous, it should bring us grief. We should be in sorrow for the wrong we have done in transgressing against Yahweh. We should continually examine our hearts. If we are truthful with ourselves, we will see that there are many instances in our lives that can cause us to sin. We must recognize the path or pattern of sin and actively avoid it. Those who truly understand and see the curses that sin brings will do everything in their power to avoid any opportunity to sin.

This blessing that Yahshua Messiah mentions is not upon those who simply mourn because of some tragedy, but upon those who mourn because of sin and the terrible curses sin brings to the world around them. They shall be comforted in the fact that they discover the merciful pardon of Yahweh and the strength and wisdom to continue on through repentance and conversion.

Those who grieve over sin and are sorrowful that they have committed them and are afflicted because they have offended Yahweh, shall find comfort in Him because He will forgive them. As we mourn together as the saints of Yahweh and seeds of the Witness Yisrayl for the sins of this world, we need to continue to purify ourselves and look forward to the day of consolation when all sin will be wiped away.

THE MEEK WILL INHERIT THE EARTH

MATTITHYAH 5:5

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Yisrayl Hawkins has taught us that the quality of meekness is the quality of humility. Yahshua Messiah said that unless we humble ourselves as little children, we will not enter the Kingdom of Yahweh.

MATTITHYAH 18:1-4

- 1 At that time the Disciples came to Yahshua asking; Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Yahweh?
- 2 Then Yahshua called a little child to Him, and set him in the midst of them,
- 3 And said: Truly I say to you: Unless you are converted, and become like little children, you will not enter into the Kingdom of Yahweh.
- 4 Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this little child, the same is greatest in the Kingdom of Yahweh.

Meekness is a quality that the most notable servants of Yahweh acquired and practiced, until their deaths. Meekness is a requirement for being in the Kingdom of Yahweh because of the tremendous power we will acquire at that time. If we do not control ourselves now, in this life, we will prove that we are not capable of controlling ourselves in Yahweh's Kingdom either.

Those who are meek, control their emotions, keeping their affections, anger and frustrations evenly balanced. Yahweh's promise is that they shall inherit the earth and shall enjoy whatever portion He gives them.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines the word meek as showing patience and humility; gentle. Easily imposed on; submissive.

Patience and humility are qualities that allow a person to keep their mind centered upon the real job at hand, which is serving Yahweh with all our heart, mind and might. This is especially needed when the frustrations and pressures around us increase.

PROVERBS 15:1

A soft; gentle, answer turns away wrath, but a cutting retort stirs up more anger.

The New Strong's Expanded Exhaustive Concordance Of The Bible gives some provocative thought as to the meaning of the word meek. This is word #4239 in the Greek dictionary which comes from #4235

Meek #4239 = mild, humble:—meek. See also 4235

#4235 praios (prah'-os) a form of 4239, gentle, i.e. humble;-meek.

Praos is mildness of disposition, gentleness of spirit, meekness. Meekness toward [Yahweh] is that disposition of spirit in which we accept His dealings with us as [righteous], and therefore without disputing or resisting. The meek man truly acknowledges himself as a sinner among sinners and this knowledge of his own sin teaches him to meekly endure the provocations of others and not to withdraw from the burdens their sins may impose on him (Gal 6:1; 2 Ti 2:25; Titus 3:2). The meek are those wholly relying on [Yahweh] rather than their own strength to defend them against injustice. Thus, meekness toward evil people means knowing [Yahweh] is permitting the injuries they inflict, that He is using them to purify His elect, and that He will deliver His elect in His time (cf. Is 41:17, Lk 18:1-8). Gentleness or meekness is the opposite to self-assertiveness and self-interest. It stems from trust in [Yahweh's] [righteousness] and control over the situation. The gentle person is not occupied with self at all. This is a work of the Holy Spirit, not of the human will (Gal. 5:23).

Gentleness does not imply effeminacy in any way. It implies sensitive discretion. We must learn to react to others in a way in which the person realizes that we are conscious of their situation and are willing to help them in whatever way possible. In "Okie terms," a man can still be a "manly man" and yet be gentle in the ways of Yahweh, without taking anything away from his masculinity. In order to become a righteous head, a man must develop true humility. This is a quality of Yahweh Himself. He is gentle, yet seriously firm in the way that He deals with His children and He's also training us to be this same way. This is so we can learn not to offend anyone but to get them to looking at their shortcomings in hopes of changing them for the better.

II TIMOTHY 2:23-26

23 But have nothing to do with foolish and unproductive controversies, knowing that they only generate strifes; battle; controversy, fighting;

24 And a servant of Yahweh must not strive! Rather, he must be gentle to all, capable of teaching, patient,

25 In humility instructing those who are in opposition—since it might be that Yahweh will grant them repentance, so that they can come to the full knowledge of the truth;

26 And that they will wake up, and stop being deceived about the snares of the devil; who has taken them captive to do her will.

Meekness is not an act of cowardice, it's something that actually requires a great deal of spiritual strength. It's the opposite of sudden anger, malice, retaliation, and resentment toward others.

Those not easily provoked to anger have learned the quality of patiently bearing the trials of others. This gives a person the ability to tolerate others trespasses against them without desire to retaliate. The meek choose not to render evil for evil, but to overcome evil with righteousness.

As we read, the definition of meek also means to be submissive. One who is meek and humble will listen to the instructions given and submit to authority, just as Yahshua Messiah did throughout His lifetime on earth and still does.

As being submissive to the will of Yahweh, the meek are willing to be instructed and admonished.

PSALM 119:33-35

33 Teach us, Father Yahweh, the way of Your statutes, and we will keep them to the end.

34 Give us understanding, and we will keep Your Law. Yes, we will observe it with our whole heart.

35 Make us tread in the path of Your Laws, for we delight in them.

Once we learn how to be meek, we will learn the secret of being obedient in everything we do. Yahweh is working with us to become like Himself. Yahweh Himself completely submits to His own Laws. This is what makes His character completely perfect. We have much to be thankful for as we examine ourselves and see the foolishness we have been brought out of, and the reminders that are given to us to keep us on the straight and narrow path.

PSALM 25:8-9

8 Upright and kind are You, Yahweh. You teach sinners Your way.

9 The meek You guide in Your judgments; the meek you teach Your ways.

Yahweh will not forget His promise to the meek—they will inherit the earth when His Kingdom takes reign over all the kingdoms of this earth under Yahshua Messiah.

PSALM 37:11

The meek in spirit shall inherit the earth. They shall delight themselves in great peace.

HUNGER AND THIRST AFTER RIGHTEOUSNESS

MATTITHYAH 5:6

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after Righteousness, for they will be filled.

In every man there is “hunger.” There is hunger for food, hunger for love, and the most important for the saints of Yahweh, a hunger for His righteousness. This beatitude, to hunger and thirst after righteousness, means an ardent desire to be and do right, simply because it’s right in the eyes of Yahweh. To be this way, we have to learn not to trust in our “own righteousness”, but in the righteousness of Yahweh.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines the word righteousness or righteous as:

righteous adj. 1. Morally upright; without guilt or sin: a righteous woman. 2. In accordance with virtue or morality: a righteous judgment. 3. Morally justifiable: righteous anger. See Synonyms at moral. –righteously adv. –righteousness

The best definition of righteousness comes from the Scriptures.

DEUTERONOMY 6:25

And it will be our righteousness if we observe to do all of these Laws before Yahweh our Father, as He has commanded us.

Righteousness is the keeping of Yahweh’s Laws, plain and simple. The righteous are those who are morally upright and free from the guilt of sin. A person is “righteous” in Yahweh’s eyes only if they are living in complete submission to His 613 moral Laws.

When we are truly striving to overcome all sin, we feel an intense desire to prove ourselves worthy. We must truly desire and choose to be righteous in everything we do. Just as one who is hungry and thirsty desires meat and drink, and cannot be satisfied with anything less than meat and drink, so must our spiritual desire be earnest and not satisfied with anything less than true righteousness.

Hunger and thirst are appetites that return frequently and require refreshing often. So it must be with our holy desires. They should not rest in any thing we have already attained, but should remain as a constant hunger and thirst to be fed on the food of Sacred Spirit. It’s the constant craving for righteousness that will keep us ever seeking after it and wanting to be filled to the full.

The passionate yearning to be filled with the righteousness of Yahweh must completely consume us. We must earnestly long after it. It must possess us. Nothing should gratify us more than to experience the purifying effects of Yahweh’s Laws on our lives as they cleanse us and bring us closer to Yahweh. We should never seek for anything less than to be full, perfect and entirely complete as our example, Yahshua Messiah.

Our bodies are alive and just as any other living substance, they require feeding. To remain alive spiritually we also require food. We must consume righteous knowledge. If we don’t feed ourselves with the knowledge of the Laws of Yahweh supplied to us by Yahweh’s servant, Yisrayl Hawkins, to uphold and practice them daily, we will starve ourselves of the growth that Yahweh wants to give us.

As the body has its natural appetites of hunger and thirst for food and drink to give it nutrients and nourishment, so also are our spiritual lives dependant upon nourishment.

If we get ourselves into the habit of rising early and seeking Father Yahweh in prayer and in study of His Word, we will begin our day with the nourishment we need to continue through it. We should thirst after this like we thirst for a cool glass of water to quench our thirst on a hot summer's day.

The promise given in this beatitude is that those who hunger and thirst will be filled because they remained faithful in keeping alive the covenant of Yahweh in their own lives. But the complete fulfillment of this will be experienced in the Kingdom of Yahweh when we will receive our reward.

REVELATION 7:15-17

15 Therefore, they are before the Throne of Yahweh, and serve Him day and night in His House. And He Who sits on the Throne will dwell among them.

16 They will hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither will the sun strike them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb Who is in the midst of the Throne will feed them, and will lead them to Living Fountains of Waters. And Yahweh will wipe away all tears from their eyes.

The phrase “they will hunger no more, neither thirst anymore” doesn't mean we will no longer have a desire for food and drink in the Kingdom. It simply refers to the fact that our desires for the spiritual food that feeds eternal life will be fully satisfied in Yahweh's Kingdom. However, we will always have the desire to continually grow in knowledge throughout eternity and to obtain all things that Yahweh wants us to experience and enjoy.

Meanwhile in this lifetime, there is an old saying that “we are what we eat.” We would do well to remember this saying when it comes to our spiritual food. If we hunger and thirst after complete righteousness, then we will become complete in righteousness.

THE MERCIFUL WILL OBTAIN MERCY

MATTITHYAH 5:7

Blessed are the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.

If meekness is considered a passive virtue then mercy is an active one. For the meek bear, but the merciful forbear, and for so doing they shall obtain mercy both from Yahweh and man. This beatitude carries with it the understanding of subordination and forgiveness towards others.

Mercy is such an important attribute of Yahweh that He actually gives us a glimpse of His mercy through the pattern shown to us in the workings of the tabernacle. Above the Ark of the Covenant was a covering known as the mercy seat that sat on top of the ark. It was from here, that Yahweh showed a representation of His glory when it is said that He came down to meet and talk with Mosheh and Aaron.

As Yahweh gave instructions to them through inspiration, He was known to speak from the mercy seat. From His actions we are taught that our lives are only sustained if Yahweh is merciful to us. As He speaks we must listen. Mankind is made in the image of Yahweh and He acts mercifully to us. Therefore, we must do the same to others, who as ourselves, are also made in the image of Yahweh.

When we show mercy to others, we are keeping the covenant of Yahweh, which acts as a reminder to us, that we must never forget the mercy Yahweh continually shows to us.

It takes mercy for someone to forgive another person of a trespass done against him, especially when it really hurts him. But this is a test we must pass, because if we want to obtain mercy, then we must show it to others in return.

It takes mercy to forgive, but this is a part of our walk in righteousness as well. It's our obligation. Mercy is active compassion in word or deed. Which means we are to practice it in our speech and in our actions. When we show mercy, we actually show Yahweh that we want to be just like Him.

Yahshua set examples for us to follow throughout His ministry. He had deep awareness of the suffering of those around Him because they had no one to guide them. In the same fashion, we also must show compassion to others. It is possible that some might not realize or understand the seriousness of some wrong they have done. So if we choose to tear down and condemn a person in their ignorance of sin, we are not practicing mercy. In fact, condemnation has no place in our lives because only Yahweh has the authority to condemn. And we will be held accountable for the lack of mercy shown towards that person. We need to remember that we were ignorant at one time as well.

Yahshua Messiah's example was to show compassionate mercy on those whom He perceived needed it, but He did not excuse their sin. He had pity on the multitudes because they had no religious leader to guide them on the road to repentance and conversion. Yahshua corrected those who needed correction, but He did this with respect and with discretion. He also was able to judge how He should deal with them. Different people and different circumstances call for different ways to handle certain problems in which mercy can be shown.

We ought to do all we can to rescue others out of the snares of the devil, so that they can be saved from dangerous errors or practices when entangled in them. We are obligated to watch over one another and to prudently reprove each other. The counselors do this with mercy as they Lawfully determine between the nature of each case and the circumstances involved with it. The counselors will correct and restore some without the need of using severe correction if there is no reason to do so. But there might be times when a person will be corrected in a more severe manner so as to stress the severity of the sin he has, or is about to commit. In this case, the person might not recognize the correction as being performed mercifully. Yet, unless we remember to remain humble when we are corrected or something is brought to our attention for correction, we cannot receive the mercy of Yahweh as it is written in:

YAAQOB 4:6

So, much greater is the mercy He gives; that is why He says: Yahweh resists the proud, but gives mercy to the humble.

Reproving someone in righteousness and expressing concern for their salvation by pointing out their wrongdoing shows mercy. But of course, this can only be done if a person will accept counsel.

A saint of Yahweh should always keep in mind what they were called out of, when they were called to The House of Yahweh – and what they now have an opportunity to become. If we have fallen short of the goal we once vowed to love more than all else, then we should gladly accept the mercy of those who can help us.

When we go to the Priests, and correction is given, you are actually being shown the mercy of Yahweh. Instruction and training is also being given to you through correction as how to judge a matter when you are faced with it again. This is what counseling is all about and through your humility, you will learn how to keep yourself from being cut off from receiving Sacred Spirit.

We need to get to the point that nothing offends us and that we can show the mercy of Yahweh to anyone who would come against us in any way. When we can do this, we will then have the right to say that we truly love our neighbor as our self.

A person can receive mercy only if they are willing to give mercy because the price for receiving mercy is the cost of showing mercy to others.

MATTITHYAH 6:14-15

14 For if you forgive men their trespasses, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you;

15 But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

When mercy is exercised towards others, we can experience true peace.

PSALM 85:10

Mercy and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

THE PURE IN HEART

MATTITHYAH 5:8

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see Yahweh.

This beatitude shows us that the heart plays a vital role in our purity. So let's look at the meaning of the words pure and heart.

Thayer's Greek Lexicon gives the following definition of the word pure: clean, pure, free from the admixture or adhesions of any thing that soils, adulterates, or corrupts. Clean i.e. the use of which is not forbidden and imparts no uncleanness, free from corrupt desire, from sin and guilt, free from every admixture of what is false, sincere, genuine, blameless, innocent, unstained with the guilt of anything.

Thayer's Greek Lexicon traces the Greek word for pure to its Hebrew origin as tabor. The New Strong's Hebrew Dictionary shows tabor as #2889 to mean:

Tabor, as an adjective, means "clean, pure". (1) The word denotes the absence of impurity, filthiness, defilement, or imperfection.

(2) It is applied concretely to substances that are genuine or unadulterated as well as describing an unstained condition of a spiritual or ceremonial nature.

...(4) [Yahweh] demands that His people have spiritual and moral purity, unsullied by sin.

...(14c) Unless the (cleansing) rites expressed a person's contrite and sincere desire to be cleansed from the defilement of sin, they were an abomination to [Yahweh] and only aggravated a person's guilt.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines pure as: Not mixed, free from adulterants or impurities, free of dirt, defilement or pollution. Free of foreign elements. Containing nothing inappropriate. Chaste, virgin.

From these meanings we can understand that to have a pure heart, we must be free from impurities and pollutions of this world. Any imperfections and blemishes that corrupt our morals must be cleansed from us. We cannot have any mixture of righteousness and evil adhering to our hearts. We have to be found blameless and innocent before Yahweh and the courts of heaven.

EPHESIANS 5:26-27

26 In order that He might sanctify them, cleansing them with the Laws as with water;

27 That He might cause the glorious called out ones to stand by His side, not having spot, nor wrinkle, nor any such things; but that they would be holy and without blemish.

We cannot mix defilement from anything to the righteousness of Yahweh in our lives and expect to be pure in heart. Any inappropriate behavior that goes against proper conduct and any thoughts or actions that defile the mind must be gotten out of us. We must practice purity so we can become the pure chaste, spiritual virgins that Yahweh is preparing us to become.

Remember that it was a mixture of righteousness and evil that Satan subtly presented to Eve. We must reject any mixture in order to be pure of heart.

GENESIS 3:4-5

4 And the serpent said to the woman; You will not surely die.

5 For Yahweh knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing righteousness and evil.

With this in mind, now notice that one of the definitions of the word pure means free from admixture. Consider all of the fantastic sermons and teachings that Yahweh's Witness has given to his seed.

Yahweh Himself, in His magnificent plan that includes us, has taken the time to actually train and protect our genetic makeup, from one generation to the next, so that the day of our birth would come and then the appointed time of our calling into Yahweh's House. This was done so that we could have, built within our genes, the ability to refuse evil and to choose to do what is right by keeping His 613 righteous Laws!

The heart is a very vital organ that does more than simply pump blood, as we can see in the scriptural definition.

Thayer's Greek Lexicon gives the following definitions for the word #2588, heart: denotes the center of all physical and spiritual life, the center and seat of spiritual life, seat of the thoughts, passions, desires, appetites, affections, purposes, endeavors, of the understanding, of the will and character, the seat of the sensibilities, affections, emotions, desires, appetites.

A pure heart is necessary because from the heart proceeds our passions, thoughts, desires, appetites and affections. All of these must be brought under submission to the will and character of Yahweh if we are to become in His likeness. The heart is the center of our will and character. Knowing this should make it easier to understand the testimony Yahweh gave about King David when He said David was a man after His own heart. This shows us that David had trained and programmed the many trillions of computers within his body to accept and change his will and character into that of our Heavenly Father. In so doing, he was able to cleanse his heart from the impurity of the character of the Gods.

Yahweh knows the heart of every man and tries it with many tests to bring it to perfection.

I CHRONICLES 29:17

I know also, my Father, that You test the hearts, and You have pleasure in uprightness...

The heart must be kept pure from all illegal lusts. This is the only way we will be allowed to see Yahweh because He does not permit impurity and imperfection in His presence.

It will only be those who have striven to purify their hearts and who truly love The House of Yahweh and Yahweh's anointed Witness who will be considered as a righteous people unto Yahweh and capable of receiving the full measure of Sacred Spirit. The ones who allow Yahweh to guide them with His Laws, and then follow them, will gain the strength and wisdom needed to overcome all sin. Keeping Yahweh's Laws will allow us to gain understanding and knowledge of how to handle any test that we face in this life.

PSALM 19:8

The Statutes of Yahweh are right, rejoicing the heart; mind. The Commandments of Yahweh are pure, bringing understanding to the eyes.

It's extremely important that we keep this scripture in mind, especially during the worst part of tribulation, known as The End.

It will only be by our faithfulness to Yahweh, that we will be able to escape the horrors that will soon be upon the inhabitants of this earth because of the curses they are bringing upon themselves. Yahweh will be merciful to us, only if we take heed to the words taught to us by His Witness in these Last Days.

If we ever begin to think in our hearts that we can do without The House of Yahweh and not be submissive to the teachings of Yahweh's Witness, then we cut ourselves off from Yahweh because of our rebellious pride!

The pure in heart are those who allow themselves to be trained to become free from evil desires and purposes by storing in their hearts the things they are taught by The House of Yahweh.

PEACEMAKERS

MATTITHYAH 5:9

Blessed are the peacemakers; for they will be called the sons of Yahweh.

We are instructed by Yahweh to prevent contention and strife and to seek for peace which builds up of The House of Yahweh.

ROMANS 14:19

Therefore, let us pursue the things of peace, and the things which build up The House of Yahweh for one another.

HEBREWS 12:14

Follow peace with all men; and holiness, without which no one will see Yahweh.

PSALM 34:14

Seek peace, pursue it! Depart from evil and do righteousness!

Those who will seek after peace do not have evil inclinations towards others. Those who desire to practice peace, at any cost, will be given the great opportunity of being a part of the immediate family of Yahweh.

The family of Yahweh is represented on earth at this time as The House of Yahweh. To show Yahweh that we love Him more than anything, we must show respect for the authority in Yahweh's House. Yahweh has called us to peace, and that peace only exists when we humbly walk in submission to the authority of Yahweh. To experience peace and to practice being a peacemaker, we must acknowledge this appointed authority without opposition; otherwise, there can be no peace.

True peace is not as the world gives. Yahshua Messiah had this peace and passed it on to his disciples as we read in:

YAHCHANAN 14:27

Peace I leave to you, My peace I give you. Not as the world gives, do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

True peace is only found by keeping; that is, practicing and loving all of Yahweh's Laws.

PSALM 119:165

Great peace have they who love Yahweh's Law and nothing will offend them; cause them to fall away because of sin or unbelief.

The prophets of old tell us that The House of Yahweh in these Last Days, is the ONLY place on earth where peace can actually be found!

CHAGYAH 2:9

The glory of this latter House will be greater than the glory of the former, says Yahweh of hosts; and IN THIS PLACE I will give peace, says Yahweh of hosts.

Yes, this latter House, the one established in the west in these Last Days, is the only place on earth at this time that knows, understands and experiences true peace. Yahweh promises that only this place will have peace, that is why He tells us in Psalm 34:14 to seek peace and gives us the location where this peace can be found as Deuteronomy 12:5 tells us seek the habitation of your Father and there you must go.

The House of Yahweh is guaranteed success in their efforts for promoting peace because Yahweh is the one who is leading and directing its steps. Yahweh knows what has to be done and He reveals this to His servant and Witness Yisrayl Hawkins so he can oversee His Works. But only those who truly believe and trust in Yahweh and His House as being the pillar and ground of the truth, and are willing to promote peace will have peace. Peace is given to those who make peace.

Now that we have seen where peace can be found, we must not forget what Yahshua Messiah has told us in this beatitude—we must make peace by being a peacemaker. Simply put, a peacemaker is one who loves peace and has a great desire to share this peace with others.

Only those who desire to live in complete peace and then follow the Laws of peace completely, have the right to be called the sons of Yahweh. Peace will always be a part of the Kingdom of Yahweh; nothing will be done without Yahweh's Laws of peace being involved.

It will be our inheritance to have the pleasure of being peacemakers here on earth, and then eventually throughout the universe in the very near future.

PSALM 37:11, 37

11 The meek in spirit shall inherit the earth. They shall delight themselves in great peace.

37 Mark the perfect man and observe the upright. The future of that man is perfect peace!

PERSECUTED FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS

MATTITHYAH 5:10

Blessed are those who are persecuted for Righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Yahweh.

It should be obvious to each of us that persecution will come upon anyone who decides to follow righteousness. The examples of the prophets and apostles were written for us to take to heart, because Yahweh also told us that we, in the Last Days, will also have to endure great trials and tribulations to enter into the Kingdom. Yahshua Messiah gave a warning to us concerning the hatred that will come upon us from those who do not know us nor understand the Plan of Yahweh. This will take place as we strive to push the Work of Yahweh forward.

LUKE 6:22-23

22 Blessed are you, when men will hate you, and when they will exclude you, and will revile you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake.

23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy; for behold, your reward is great in heaven. For in the same manner did their fathers treat the prophets.

I KEPHA 3:16-17

16 But have a pure conscience, so that when they slander you as evildoers, those who revile your righteous behavior in the Messiah may be ashamed.

17 For it is better to suffer for doing righteousness, if it is Yahweh's will, than for doing evil.

Yahweh allows us to suffer for the sake of righteousness in order to prove us to see if we will weaken and turn away from Him or if we will endure the persecution. No one is ever promised that it will be easy to enter the Kingdom of Yahweh.

YAAQOB 1:2-4

2 My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into various temptations; trials,

3 Knowing that the testing of your faith develops endurance.

4 And let endurance have its perfect work, that you may become perfect and complete, lacking nothing.

I KEPHA 4:12-14

12 Beloved, do not be amazed concerning the fiery trial which you must undergo in order to be tested, as though some alien thing were befalling you;

13 But rejoice in the fact that you are partakers of the Messiah's sufferings; that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy.
14 If you are reproached for the Name of the Messiah, blessed are you, for Yahweh's Spirit of glory rests upon you.

It's important to realize that the reason for the persecution is 'for the sake of righteousness', which is the obedience of keeping Yahweh's Laws. We can't break Yahweh's Laws and then claim we are being persecuted.

We are commanded to lead a quiet and peaceful life and to focus on the Work of Yahweh.

I THESSALONIANS 4:11

Make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

The job of Yisrayl Hawkins and his seed is to be witnesses, warning the world that their way of rebellion against Yahweh's Laws will bring about the near total destruction of planet Earth.

The prophecies show that this Work, once established, would continue working as a witness until mankind nearly destroys all life from the earth. Only at that time will Yahweh step in and the governments will be given to Yahshua and the Saints. The only time Yahweh said He would ever interfere with man's government in this time period would be to prevent the Work of His Servant Yisrayl from being stopped. As long as we follow the teachings and practices of The House of Yahweh, taught to us by Yisrayl Hawkins and remain loyal to the Work, we have nothing to fear.

We as members of The House of Yahweh are instructed in the Scriptures and by Yisrayl Hawkins to be completely law abiding.

I KEPHA 2:11-16

11 Beloved, I plead with you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;
12 Having your conduct honest among the Gentiles, so that, while slandering you as evildoers, they may, by your righteous works which they observe, glorify Yahweh in the day of visitation.
13 Therefore, submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for Yahweh's sake; whether to the king, as supreme,

14 Or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of those who do righteousness.
15 For so is the will of Yahweh: that with doing righteousness you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men—
16 As free, yet not using your liberty as a cloak for maliciousness, but as the servants of Yahweh.

The Prophet Daniyl wrote that he was amazed at the many laws passed, but unless these creations of man, whether laws, ordinances, statutes, or codes, actually command us to disobey The House of Yahweh, then we are commanded by Yahweh to obey them. We have a perfect example of this in the Last Days in our Pastor Yisrayl Hawkins.

Notice what the officials said in the following news article:

2 Yahweh sect members buy up land

CALLAHAN COUNTY—Tax collectors, lawmen and landowners wanting to sell at a great price can't say enough kind things about the House of Yahweh.

"They're not a problem," said Margaret Hoogstra, who lives near the compound. "They tend to keep to themselves."

'They pay their bills'

One measure of growth in rural areas is the issuance of septic system permits. Steve Odom, Callahan County commissioner for Precinct 3, is responsible for issuing permits in the county and inspecting systems.

Odom said he has heard a lot of unfavorable stories about sect members, but "haven't found any of them to be true."

House of Yahweh members also get high marks in the offices of property appraisers and tax collectors.

Individual property owners outside the campground pay property taxes. Periodically, Robert Hawkins comes to Barry's office to check on House of Yahweh members, Barry said. If anyone is behind on taxes—a rarity—Robert Hawkins ensures they get caught up immediately, Barry said.

Barry said Yisrayl Hawkins and other House of Yahweh members are paying more for land than the market value, prompting many people to sell.

"What we're seeing is top dollar," Barry said.

Schools not affected

Some county residents have expressed concern over the Eula Independent School District losing tax money because of the House of Yahweh. That is an unfounded fear, said Richard Petree, chief appraiser for the Taylor County Appraisal District.

No property is taken off Eula school rolls when a House of Yahweh member buys land, Petree said.

The Abilene Reporter News 9-27-03

If in your honest efforts to live as a righteous saint, others persecute and revile you for belonging to The House of Yahweh, you are to consider this a blessing.

It's evidence that you are a child of Yahweh, and that those who choose to live righteously will suffer.

II TIMOTHY 3:12

Yes, and all who will live Righteously, as Yahshua Messiah, will suffer persecution.

Those who suffer are considered blessed. It seems a strange saying that the righteous should suffer, merely because they are righteous. But this is because the hearts of the world are hostile to every righteous thing of Yahweh and His House. But we are already warned that all those who live righteously represent the Kingdom of Yahweh and those of the world represent Satan's kingdom and this stirs hatred.

The hatred and enmity of this world toward the saints of Yahweh causes a separation to take place. Living according to the Laws of Yahweh actually brings reproof and condemnation to the wicked lives and practices of the unrighteous, and they cannot handle their sins being exposed. This fills them with hatred against The House of Yahweh and opens the door for persecution to take place simply for the sake of their righteousness.

Persecution can be verbal, by cruel mocking and reproach, or through malicious deeds such as confiscating someone's possessions as has been done in the past to The House of Yahweh. It could come in the form of imprisonment for no reason, as examples show us in the Scriptures. Innumerable sorts of death and torture is recorded in history from the wretched acts of the beastly system to the saints of Yahweh whose testimonies have been saved and written for us.

HEBREWS 11:36-40

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment;

37 They were stoned, they were sawed in two, were tested, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented; cruelly treated—

38 Of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And all these, having obtained a righteous report through the Faith, have not received the promise;

40 Yahweh having provided some better thing for us, that they, without us, would not be made perfect.

How could such a beautiful, righteous way of life, that changes the character of the heart and mind to love a peaceful way of life, provoke persecution? The Holy Scriptures tell us that everyone who commits evil hates the light and will not come to the light of Yahweh because this would expose their evil deeds and they would to be reproved for it. It also tells us that the world first hated the Messiah and that it would hate us as well because we follow His example. But if we were of the world, it would love us, but since we are not of this world, and have been chosen out of this world, the world hates us. The saints of Yahweh will always be unwelcome in this world. The challenge is given to us to endure until the end and then have the great opportunity to teach some of the very same ones who persecuted us, once their minds are opened to see the truth as we now do.

SPOKEN OF AS EVIL

MATTITHYAH 5:11-12

11 Blessed are you, when men will revile and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for greatest is your reward in heaven, for in the same manner they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

It might not seem like much of a comfort to think that you will be evil spoken of and falsely accused for upholding Yahweh's Laws, but this has to be done because Yahweh must know, without a doubt, that you will stand firm for the faith even if it means giving your life for it.

It is prophesied that evil would be spoken of Yisrayl and his seed, so this should not be something that weakens our faith. We should think of Yahshua Messiah's example, they spoke evil of Him, then they spoke evil of His disciples, and so it is with us.

This is not a joyful thing in itself, but when you realize that these things are prophesied, it should strengthen your faith to know that you are in the only place that the Creator of the universe has chosen. No other organization is hated like The House of Yahweh. You can go to any church or religious organization, and suffer no persecution but turn to Yahweh's Laws and you will be persecuted.

So we can see that persecution is necessary. And we can rejoice according to the words of Yahshua that this hatred reveals the fact to the world, that we are the chosen people of Yahweh. Yahshua Messiah encourages us that we must endure until the end if we desire to remain in Yahweh's House forever.

MATTITHYAH 24:10-13

- 10 And then will the many be offended; fall away, and will betray one another, and will hate one another;
- 11 Because many false religions will be aroused, and will deceive the many.
- 12 And because iniquity will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.
- 13 But he who endures until the end, the same will be saved.

Yahshua did not give this warning for nothing. Here He was telling us that the many would be offended. Strong's Greek Dictionary gives the meaning of the word #4624, offended, as to entrap, i.e. trip up (figuratively, stumble (transitively) or entice to sin, apostasy or displeasure):--(make to) offend.

This shows us that those who once were enlightened, but choose to leave Yahweh will do so because they become entrapped in sin and apostasy. As they become enticed, they become weak-minded and stumble into sin and return back to the filth from which they were once saved. These are the ones who would stumble and fall rather than take a stand and suffer for Messiah's sake since they so easily forget the suffering that Yahshua endured for them.

Think about this for a moment, here stood the Son of Yahweh, a man who was only trying to stand up for the truth and trying to inform others of the error of their way and what did they do? They accused Him of having a demon and had gone crazy! They even mocked Him as he hung on the stake!

This should be a warning to anyone in Yahweh's House who even thinks about murmuring against it or separating from it, because this is the "love" that awaits you if you desire to return to the world of sin!

Yahshua had to go through this suffering for a reason. He learned to be submissive to the will of Yahweh no matter what, even to the point of death!

I KEPHA 2:21-23

- 21 For to this you were called: to do righteousness, because for this: doing righteousness, Messiah also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps:
- 22 Who committed no sin, nor was guile found in His mouth;
- 23 Who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him Who judges righteously;

Notice Yahshua's example, when He was reviled, He reviled not; He chose not to retaliate. This is the same example that His apostles followed, and is the same course of action that each of us must have firmly grounded in our hearts and minds. In this way, we will learn what it means to "bless our enemies".

I CORINTHIANS 4:12-14

- 12 We work hard with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it;
- 13 When we are slandered, we answer kindly. We have been treated as the filth of the world, the scum of the earth, until now.
- 14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved children, I warn you.

ROMANS 12:9-14

- 9 Love without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is righteous.
- 10 Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor showing deference; respect, honor, to one another;
- 11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit, serving Yahweh;
- 12 Rejoicing in hope; persevering through tribulation; continuing steadfastly in prayer;

13 Contributing to the needs of saints; given to hospitality.

14 Bless those who persecute you; bless, and do not curse.

Yahshua and His disciples had ample opportunity to let the carnal mind choose retaliation had they desired to do so. But the way of Yahweh teaches not to do so, and they chose to keep the Law of Yahweh instead. Yahshua set this example even when He was standing before His accusers and the people responsible for His torture and death. Yahshua blessed His enemies and said, “Father forgive them” before He breathed His last breath.

We must be spoken evil of, or else we cannot be tested to see if we will stand firm for Yahweh. Though the contempt of the world is not in itself desirable, it is a blessing to be able to imitate Messiah’s example.

When Yahshua said that we must lay down our lives, and that greater love has no one then to do this, He was serious. Our walk with Yahweh demands that we stand firm and endure until the end. The time is coming when our endurance will be strongly put to the test.

For an example of how a saint of Yahweh must react to persecution and hatred, we can look at the testimony recorded of Yahseph. When he was young Yahweh revealed to him a dream that his family would one day bow down to him. He told them the dream, but this only caused his brothers to be filled with jealousy and hatred towards him. Can you imagine that? He had to live with his family knowing that they held hatred towards him and spoke evil of him, just as this beatitude refers to.

GENESIS 37:3-11

3 Now Israyl loved Yahseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made him a richly ornamented tallit.

4 When his brothers saw their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak a kind word to him.

5 Yahseph dreamed a dream, and when he told it to his brothers; they hated him even more.

6 He said to them; Hear this dream which I have dreamed:

7 We were binding sheaves of grain in the field, when behold, my sheaf arose and stood upright; and your sheaves stood all around, and bowed down to my sheaf.

8 His brothers said to him; Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us? And they hated him all the more, because of his dream and what he had said. 9 Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers, and said; Listen, I have dreamed another dream, and this time the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bowed down to me.

10 When he told his father as well as his brothers; his father rebuked him, and said to him; What is this dream you dreamed? Will your mother, and I, and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?

11 His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Yahseph’s brother’s jealousy eventually led them into selling him into slavery and sending him off to a foreign country. How is that for brotherly love? But Yahseph accepted his situation and when the time had come that his dream came true and his brothers had to actually come and bow before him or they and their families would die from starvation – Yahseph acted in a remarkable way.

GENESIS 42:6, 8-9

6 Now Yahseph was the governor over the land and who sold grain to all its people. So when Yahseph’s brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.

8 Although Yahseph recognized his brothers, his brothers did not recognize him.

9 Then Yahseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them, and said to them; You are spies! You have come to see where our land is unprotected!

This would have been an opportune time for Yahseph to get revenge, after all, he recognized his brothers, but they had no earthly idea who he was. They thought he was just an important Egyptian official. Now he had them bowing before him with their faces to the ground, he could cause them humiliation and teach them a lesson for what they had done to him, making his life miserable all those years while he was separated from his family, and sold to become a slave – surely Yahseph would want to get even for all they had done? Wouldn’t he?

No, Yahseph’s heart was undone; he was broken up at the sight of them and couldn’t control his emotions at the heartache and relief of seeing them and knowing that they were all alive and well.

GENESIS 45:1-3

1 Then Yahseph could no longer control himself in front of all his attendants, and he cried out; Have everyone leave my presence! So there was no one with Yahseph when he made himself known to his brothers.

2 And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians heard him; and Pharaoh's house heard of it.
3 Then Yahseph said to his brothers; I am Yahseph! Does my father still live? But his brothers could not answer him, for they were terrified at his presence.

Here we see that Yahseph wept aloud, he could no longer hold in his grief for the lost time, but knowing the Plan of Yahweh, he was also weeping for the great joy of seeing his brethren all together, and especially his younger brother.

GENESIS 45:4

Then Yahseph said to his brothers; Come near to me. And when they came near, he said; I am Yahseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

Yahseph had tremendous authority as second to Pharaoh and when he spoke people listened, now he was with his brothers and they were fearful, not knowing if he would personally take revenge on them or not.

Did he take advantage of this situation? No, he simply acknowledged that it was Yahweh's will that all things had occurred the way they did because he also knew that Yahweh had been blessing him.

GENESIS 45:5, 8

5 And now, do not be distressed nor angry with yourselves for selling me here, for Yahweh sent me ahead of you to save lives.

8 So then, it was not you who sent me here, but Yahweh; and He made me father to Pharaoh, and ruler of his entire household, and ruler of all Egypt.

Yahseph kept this beatitude because he was an obedient servant to Yahweh. He put up with all manner of evil being spoken against him, being falsely accused, reviled and persecuted by his brothers. Yet, just as Yahshua Messiah spoke, he was blessed for the sake of Yahweh. In the end, once he realized the plan that Yahweh had in store for his life, he rejoiced greatly.

MATTITHYAH 5:11-12

11 Blessed are you, when men will revile and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for greatest is your reward in heaven, for in the same manner they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

I CORINTHIANS 10:11

Now all these things took place with them as examples; and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come.

Yes, these things are all recorded for our learning, to understand how we can apply the Laws of Yahweh in any situation we encounter. Yahshua's words in the Beatitudes were inspired to remind us that Yahweh knows our endurance of trials and tests. Because of His loving kindness, He doesn't allow us to be tempted beyond anything we can bear.

I CORINTHIANS 10:13

There is no temptation taken hold of you, except what is common to man. And Yahweh is faithful; He will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, He will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

The Book of Yahweh is written for us, "on whom the end of the ages have come" and as such, we have a clear warning written for us in the Last Days in the Beatitudes of Yahshua.

We must be poor in spirit and mourn for the sin of this world; being meek as we hunger and thirst after righteousness, not forgetting to be merciful and pure in heart so we can be peacemakers even while being persecuted and having all manner of evil spoken against us.

If we work diligently towards seeing these things fulfilled in our lives, we can rest assured that as seeds of Yisrayl, we can receive the promises from Yahweh.

Let us always be faithful and true to Yahweh, His Kingdom, His anointed Witness Yisrayl and to the Body of Priests of The House of Yahweh, so our names can be written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

REVELATION 3:13

He who hears Yahweh's call and obeys it, let him learn the Words of Yahweh that is taught to the called out ones of The House of Yahweh.

Yahweh bless your understanding.

...today's news fulfilling bible prophecy

JEFF: Welcome to another edition of YPN News, bringing you the news that relates to bible prophecy and foretold by Yisrayl Hawkins. Caton, we're going to talk about the latest here between Russia and Ukraine. A couple developments there including some of the presidents talking with the "coalition of the willing". So we'll have those details. Also the latest between Israel and Hamas. It was a little bit quieted down for a minute, but things are heating back up. Also, we have India coming out with a pretty big military spending budget for this coming year. So they're beefing up their military. Those stories and more, but first...

JEFF: A new recall, this time companies Kenz Henz and Black Sheep are recalling 6 million eggs. What we know for sure, the eggs were distributed across Arkansas, Missouri and Texas between July 9th and September 17th, but there could be more that were repackaged and distributed to other states according to the FDA.

CATON: The eggs have been found to be contaminated with salmonella. Symptoms that can arise from being infected with the bacteria are diarrhea, fever and stomach cramps. If you have any of these recalled eggs it's best to either throw them away or return them to the store for a refund. But also make sure you sanitize any surfaces that could have come in contact with the eggs or your handling of them.

JEFF: People are wondering if this will impact the price of eggs more than they have been already? The answer is it's not likely to be as bad as with the bird flu because this is a problem directly with the eggs, not the chicken who lay them.

CATON: Drug makers are pushing for a new deal to lower the cost of a revolutionary drug that reduces the risk of HIV infection by more than 99.9%. If the deal goes through, Lenacapavir will be made available to low-and-middle income counties by 2027.

JEFF: Lenacapavir's developer, Gilead Sciences, normally charge around $28,000 for a one-year supply of the drug. But charities like the Gate's Foundation are planning to assist two different drug makers in India, who will develop their own generic versions of the HIV prevention drug. The cost to one patient for a year's worth of this generic brand will be just $40.

CATON: Wow! That just goes to show how much profit there actually is in drug manufacturing. Well, Peru's new President has declared his first state of emergency for thirty days to fight back against the country's problem with crime. In the Capitol of Lima, which has a population of ten million, the people are not convinced that the President's call for a crack-down will amount to anything. Take a look at this video which shows why people are unsure if his plan will help.

(VIDEO LINK: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a67iGP-mtUM>)

JEFF: Well, Caton, as we heard there, testimony from some of the residents that are saying that it just seemed like it was any other day. That the first day of what was supposed to be the crack-down; they're expecting to see more police force and so forth out on the street, but it's just like any other day. And that's why many are feeling it's not going to be any different. Well, India is planning a huge spending budget of 797,000 crore rupees on its military defense. That's a whopping $9 billion in US dollars. India's Defense Acquisition Counsel, (or DAC) the top decision-making body for military spending decided which weapons to buy and how much they could allocate for the purchases.

CATON: There are three main weapons India's army will be getting. Let's take a look at each one. The first item on the list are Nag Mk 2 Anti-tank missiles. This is produced in India. They are putting in an order for over 2,000 of these missiles. Next is the Ground Based Mobile Elint System. Each one is an individual intelligence hub set up on a truck. They are capable of tracking and identifying enemies assets. Lastly for the army, they will be purchasing what are called high mobility vehicles, which are generally speaking, a military Humvee.

JEFF: But that isn't where it stops, India's Navy is also going to benefit by getting landing dock platforms. These are ships that can carry land equipment and soldiers and can easily drop them off in a war zone. These will be a game-changer for India. Besides these docking platforms, the navy will receive 30mm naval guns and advance light weight torpedoes as well as smart ammo for their 76mm super rapid guns.

CATON: Finally, the India Air Force was not forgotten. Collaborative long range target saturation or CLRTS/DS for short but better known as Drone Swarms. This is something else they will be getting. It's a hunting pack in the sky with a range of over 1,000 kilometers they can navigate and find their targets independently and launch a coordinated suicide attack. Besides this high-tech advancement, India's Air Force will also replenish its stock of S-400 missiles from Russia.

JEFF: As we have already reported in the past, there have already been multiple U.S. strikes on boats in the Pacific and Caribbean waters but the latest comes with the news that there were two survivors. Navy Officials reported that U.S. Navy helicopters were overhead and a boat picked them up, where they remain in U.S. custody.

CATON: President Donald Trump elaborated on the strike saying, "We attacked a submarine and that was a drug carrying submarine, built specifically for the transportation of massive amounts of drugs, just so you understand. This was not an innocent group of people. I don't know too many people that have submarines." He was referencing what they call semi-submersibles, which cartels often use to do their smuggling. Regardless, this is the sixth boat the United States has hit in international waters and we know of 29 deaths resulting from those strikes.

JEFF: But some question if what the White House is doing is actually legal. Secretary of State Marco Rubio added to the President's comments saying, "We're undertaking these operations against narco-terrorists. That's what these are." They also consider the President of Venezuela Nicholas Maduro as illegitimate.

CATON: President Donald Trump recently met with the NATO General secretary Mark Rutte at the White House they discussed the conflict in Ukraine amongst a few other things. The NATO Chief was impressed with President Trump's actions in the region and voiced as much. Take a look at this next video on their meeting and what they had to say. (VIDEO LINK <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=whW4E4tEk6E>)

.....
JEFF: Caton, the Secretary General of NATO was really building up the President there as you could see. All he had was great things to say and you could kind of see President Trump did like all that, little bit of flattery right there. Continuing on President Trump's fight against drug runners from Venezuela. The U.S. Secretary of Defense, Pete Hegseth ordered the largest aircraft carrier in not only the U.S. fleet, but the world, to waters off the coast of Venezuela. But it's not just Venezuela, Columbia's president has had sanctions put on him by the U.S. Treasury. More on this unfolding situation and the move of the U.S. in Latin American waters in this next video. (VIDEO LINK: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2VdZWn4aVeY>)

CATON: That's pretty impressive, ordering the largest aircraft carrier in the world to that particular region, pretty much to our neighbor to the south. It's making a pretty bold statement.

JEFF: Right. And along with the accompanying vessels that's quite a show of fire power in the region.

CATON: That's right. Well, new sanctions being applied to Russia to put pressure on the country to end the war in Ukraine. Sanctions were put on two of Russia's largest oil producers. These sanctions were put on the country due to what the US treasury department called a "lack of serious commitments to a peace process..." after what Ukraine called a strike on a kindergarten center, President Putin was overseeing a nuclear missile exercise.

JEFF: US Secretary of State Marco Rubio and Russia's Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov had a heated conversation in which neither side reached an agreement, and Russia said fighting will continue until it receives concessions from Ukraine. As Ukraine's President Zelensky has called on the U.S. to put more pressure on Russia to end the war, the U.S. implemented these latest round of sanctions targeting what they call Russia's "war economy."

.....

CATON: Moving over the sanctions to the Middle East. We brought you news on the recent peace agreement between Israel and Hamas and the ceasefire that was initiated. Well, fears are looming that the ceasefire just won't hold as more smoke was seen rising over the Gaza skyline. Israeli military said that Hamas has already violated the agreement when they fired anti-tank missiles and gunfire towards Israeli troops in southern Gaza, killing two Israeli soldiers. And of course, Hamas denies the allegations.

JEFF: Israel, in its usual fashion, fired an insane amount of firepower towards what they say was the area which was the source of the strikes. Of course, mostly civilians suffered the barrage of Israeli strikes hitting a coffee shop and killing at least 23 people including children. Palestinians are asking "Where is Donald Trump?" in all this. The U.S. president has said that Hamas needs to be disarmed as they agreed.

CATON: Since the deal has taken effect, several Palestinians have been killed by Israeli snipers for crossing the "yellow line" where the Israeli troops withdrew from. That yellow line is unknown to many and when it's unintentionally crossed, they're shot and killed by Israeli snipers. Since then, Israeli troops have been marking that line to make it clear to see. The question now is how much aid will the Israeli military allow into the region to help those most in need? That was a big issue in the previous months because there were a lot of people needing aid, but the Israeli military was not allowing those hundreds and hundreds of trucks to get through.

JEFF: Right. You would think that the Israelis would have clearly marked that line if they're going to take such a severe punishment for anyone crossing it; that it would clearly be known this is the line. To close us out for this broadcast, we take it back to the conflict with Russia and Ukraine. Ukrainian President Zelensky went to the UK to meet with the "coalition of the willing" to once again garner support to put more pressure on Russia. To see who he met with and what was accomplished, take a look at this next video.

(VIDEO LINK: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xB0taFxFpPs>)

CATON: Well, you know, Zelensky is definitely been making his rounds to President Trump, to the members of the UK, and has been calling out to NATO, everybody that they possibly can because he really would like to put an end to this war, but Russia's really kind of standing their ground saying, 'Hey, Ukraine needs to give us some concessions before we turn away and put a stop to this war.' President Trump is really pushing to bring an end to this thing and he's not very pleased because President Putin, even though meeting with him on several occasions, he's not really budging off of his seat on this topic.

JEFF: And all of the support that the other countries are giving to Ukraine is really continuing this war. You know, pushing it forward. So, it needs to be a little more of a give and take. If they would stop giving all those weapons to Ukraine, they might be forced to negotiate a little bit and possibly, they could come to a resolution and actually stop the war.

CATON: That's right. Well, if you would like to learn more about how you can bring a peaceful solution in your life, do contact The House of Yahweh. Of course don't forget to request your free copy of The Prophetic Word magazine and Monthly Newsletter. Here's how.
